

Orange County Exhibit Wins At Ventura County Fair

FIRST PRIZE IS AGAIN AWARDED CITRUS DISPLAY

Winning another $250, the Orange county exhibit took first prize yesterday, at Ventura county fair for county exhibits, with Riverside county placing second. The exhibit, which was prepared by the county agricultural department, was practically the same as that which took first at the state fair in the citrus feature exhibits. Deputy Agricultural Commissioner W. H. Wright and Inspector George Sloop are in charge of the exhibit and supervised the changes that were made in preparing it for the Ventura fair.

The cash award yesterday made a total of $850 that has been won by the Orange county exhibit at the two fairs where it has been displayed thus far. It also is scheduled to appear at the Los Angeles County fair, which opens in Pomona, September 17, and the Riverside fair.

The exhibit is built up before a background showing a beach scene of the famous "Gold Coast," with a miniature road leading over hills of orange in the foreground to the beach. This is framed in an arched canopy with Egyptian columns. Several replicas of the sphinx are grouped about in front of the canopy. The main part of the exhibit features oranges and is trimmed with lemons and grapefruit. Plates of sub-tropical fruits are on one side and deciduous fruits on the other. Baskets of vegetables, a table of honey, packed boxes of extra fancy fruit, nuts, beans and grain also are used in the exhibit.

Twenty-seven prize ribbons exhibited in the office of A. A. Brock, county horticultural commissioner, were won at the state fair. These brought a total of $160 in prizes, making a grand total of $410 at the state fair including the $250 award for the citrus feature prize. The ribbons include firsts for the following: Valencia oranges, Chalcote avocados, feijoas, amogoes, plate of citrus, Queen avocados, Linda avocados, Sharpless avocados and Marsh seedless grapefruit. These awards carried a total of $75.

Second prizes were awarded for Eureka lemons, Klondike walnuts, extracted orange honey, comb honey, kumquats, Dickinson avocados, Mayapan avocados, Taft avocados, guavas, cherimoyas, pimientos, peppers, lima beans and an exhibit of rare fruits. Total cash awards in this class amounted to $61.

Third sweepstakes for avocados carried an award of $30. Three third prizes for Santa Barbara soft shell walnuts, Lyon avocados and sapotillas added $4 to the cash awards.

Gold medal awards were made for exhibits of red and white grape juice.

YORBA SCHOOL HAS 41 PUPILS ENROLLED

YORBA, Sept. 13.—The first week of school at Yorba shows a registration of 41 pupils. Miss Beulah Moore is teacher of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades this year, taking the place of Miss Cynthia Donlon, who is now at Oxnard.

Mrs. Olive Johnson of the Rancho Santa Ana, is teaching at the school on the ranch, 24 pupils being registered this year. Mrs. Johnson, who is the wife of the ranch manager, Ernest R. Johnson, takes the place of Miss Kate Travis.

seemed to wish he never had set out on the journey. His eyes were full of tears as he said:

"I've become a wreck since the press started talking about me like this. It was not true. I was not sent by Mr. Kenny to work. No haircut and no shave. Mr. Kenny never invited me for that. He is a very generous man. He simply said:

"'Louie you been a good boy.' 'Therefore he gave me a vacation. I tell you this much—that if I ever catch the man who told the lie—' he clenched his fists—'I, I spit in his eye. I tell you I spit in his eye. He spoiled my vacation.' Arico was more affected by his fear that Kenny would blame him for the publicity than by anything else.

"Why I lie? I never lie in my life," Arico stated emphatically. "I told everybody I left the shop for a month to go to London. And not to get a job. I don't need to come to London to get a job cutting hair. I got plenty of work in New York.

"I never been to jail, but I couldn't tell you what I would do if I met the man who said I was going to London to cut Kenny's hair."

Arico said that all the arrangements had been left up to Kenny's people in New York, including the obtaining of a passport.

"The next thing I knew I was aboard the Leviathan," he added. Arico marched down the gang-plank at noon, carrying a big parcel which, it was whispered, contained the most precious of his barbering implements. He was escorted by a ship's officer who prevented newspapermen from approaching.

Shortly thereafter, Arico entered a brown sedan and left at 12:30 in the direction of Winchester.

His car moved fast, but reporters followed in another car as far as Southampton common, where Arico halted to quench his thirst with a bottle of ale at the Cowherd Inn.

Discovers Car Destroyed By Fire In Night

Edward C. Schultz, 740 Eastwood avenue, was greeted by a strange sight yesterday morning when he opened his garage door to roll out the family touring car. During the hours which had elapsed between the time he put the car away and when he opened the garage all of the combustible parts of the car had disappeared, leaving only the chassis.

Fire, which evidently had started in the back seat, had burned through the night, consuming the car and charring the inside of the garage. The gasoline in the tank had not exploded, owing it is thought by Schultz, to the fact that the tank fittings were very tight.

A pair of overalls hanging within two feet of the burning machine were not scorched.

Kip Rhinelander Not To See Wife, Attorney Declares

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Sept. 13.—(UP)—Alice Jones Rhinelander, colored, probably will refuse a conference with her wealthy husband, Kip Rhinelander, if he is seeking one as reported.

At least, she was advised today by her attorney, Lee Parsons Davis, to avoid such consultations. Further, Davis suggested that if Rhinelander, who departed for Las Vegas, Nev., yesterday, has left the state of Nevada's jurisdiction, he has forfeited residence and thereby made invalid his recent claims for a divorce there.

Davis interrupted the reported departure as a possible sign that the young descendant of an old Huguenot family had abandoned hope of obtaining a divorce.

LAGUNA BEACH

LAGUNA BEACH, Sept. 12.—The Rev. Frederick Graves, canon of St. James Cathedral, Fresno, with Mrs. Graves and daughter, Sarah, and sons, Elliot and Stephen, spent one day this week with Miss Mary Graves, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Graves, who is staying at the Dyer cottage.

A WORD OF COMFORT

Just as in national crises the courage and the determination and the conviction of God's presence and sustaining strength of a few stout hearts have proven sufficient to brace up the feeble and the discouraged, so in your own life you will discover that you were born for victory and not for defeat, if you will manfully hold on through the dark hours.
Question the validity of your doubts more strenuously than you do the power of what you have learned to believe. Cherish your confidence that God loves you.

SIX—in Winslow, Ariz., Sept. 10, Mrs. Susan Six, aged 82 years. Funeral services will be held from Winbiger's funeral home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. ## NAME LEACH TO POST'S SECOND HIGHEST OFFICE

Otto A. Jacobs, prominent young attorney of Santa Ana and member of the law firm of Head, Wellington, Jacobs and Scofield, last night was swept into office as commander of Santa Ana post, No. 131, American Legion, by a unanimous vote, after William Iverson, his only rival, had asked that the vote be recorded as unanimous.

Jacobs led Iverson 106 to 62 when the ballots were counted. A prominent member of the post for several years, Jacobs was first vice commander last year and second vice commander in 1927. He also had served on prominent Legion committees. He succeeds Franklin G. West, as commander.

"With the Santa Ana post a bigger post than ever before and with the California American Legion boasting 50,000 members, the duties of the commander this year will carry more than the usual responsibility. It is my plan to do all in my power to make the post here one of the outstanding organizations in the California department," Jacobs said today.

Leach Vice Commander
Hunter W. Leach, who a year ago was defeated by one vote by Jacobs for the office of first vice commander, easily was elected to that office last night over Robert Walker. Leach, a deputy county jailer, is the man responsible for the success of the American Legion's Bugle and Drum corps and has been a prominent worker in the Santa Ana post for several years.

For second vice commander, the post selected Lester Steinkopf, chairman of this year's entertainment committee, who went into office unopposed. Gene Douglas was nominated for the office but withdrew in Steinkopf's favor before the voting started. Steinkopf has been a member of the post's executive committee.

Gene Douglas was elected chaplain and Ed Kolbe was re-elected post adjutant. Neither had any opposition.

William Penn was elected sergeant-at-arms in the "warmest" voting of the evening. His two opponents, Al Winters and Grover Fultz, polled enough votes to keep him from getting a majority and a second ballot was necessary.

Members of the post's executive committee for the year, elected last night are Charles Van Wyk, former commander; Robert Walker, Elmer Schanell, former post adjutant; William Iverson and Ed Struble.

Auxiliary Serves Dinner
The meeting last night opened with a dinner, served by the post's auxiliary. Entertainment was furnished by the "Yellowjackets," a Santa Ana girls' orchestra, which scored a hit with the Legion men.

Announcement was made that a benefit dance would be held by the auxiliary September 21, funds to go toward sending the Santa Ana Auxiliary Glee club to the Louisville national convention.

Announcement also was made at the post meeting that the Berkeley post of the American Legion was raising a fund to aid the trip to Louisville and that the money would be sent here within the next few days.

G. B. Hull, of the Dana Point organization, appeared before the Legion last night and invited the members to a picnic to be held at Dana Point all day Sunday, September 22.

A barbecue and entertainment of various kinds will be furnished by the Dana Point organization and Legion men and their wives and families are invited to attend.

Local Briefs

The annual Oklahoma picnic will be staged in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles, Sunday. Will Rogers has been invited to speak at the reunion.

Wolverines of the whole west are to be welcomed at the official Michigan state picnic, to be held in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles, September 21. ## Farm Bureau Men Of Orange County To Regional Meet

Several farm bureau officials and members of the farm advisor's staff here will attend a meeting of the Orange County Farm Bureau federation, tomorrow, in San Diego, according to J. A. Smiley, chairman of the region.

J. J. Deuel, head of the law and utilities department of the state federation, is planning to attend the meeting. Norman M. Blaney, executive secretary of the Orange County Farm bureau, will report on the recent western states farm bureau conference, which he attended as representative of Orange county. Smiley will outline the national September membership drive. There will be reports from the various counties represented.

Those planning to attend from Orange county include Assistant Farm Advisor E. E. Eastman, Jack Crill, Garden Grove; and John Ragan, Villa Park, in addition to Blaney and Smiley.

ALUMNI SPEAK TO FRESHMEN IN JR. COLLEGE

Addresses by Edward Rinkler and Miss Helen Drake, both students in the University of Southern California and alumni of Santa Ana junior college, were outstanding events on today's Freshman day junior college assembly program.

D. K. Hammond, program chairman, introduced the two former junior college students with a short talk concerning the activities of and honors won by college alumni, stating that the number of graduates entering senior colleges with high standings is rapidly increasing.

Expressing his joy at being once more in the college hall, Edward Rinkler spoke concerning the "Characteristics of a Don." "To me," Rinkler said, "the outstanding characteristics of the Dons are hospitality and good will; in short, friendship. Like the Spanish Dons of old, students and faculty of Santa Ana junior college proffer unfailing hospitality and welcome to all newcomers."

Miss Drake discussed the value of junior colleges in preparing the student for senior colleges and the enjoyment of returning as an alumnus to such an institution. Several solos were sung by Robert Brown, with Miss Ruth Armstrong at the piano. Musical numbers also were given by Arthur Baddoo, new college student.

H. O. Russell and E. M. Nealey, members of the college faculty, told of the problems to be encountered by the freshman class.

Following luncheon, which was served in the school cafeteria, students assembled for the Thorndyke examination, given by A. D. Hoen-shell.

PINK FOR EVENING
Pink is one of the most fashionable colors for evening—not necessarily a shell pink, but a deeper tone that is slightly grayed. Coral is much in evidence. And strange it may seem, the new shades are particularly effective on the red-head.

SCHEDULE FOR ADULT CLASSES IS ANNOUNCED

Presenting her schedule of classes in the adult education department of the Santa Ana schools, Mrs. Golden S. Norwood, supervisor, today called attention to the growth of this department in the last year, which necessitated the addition of one more full-time teacher. The position was given to Miss Florence Moreland, who gave part of her time to the work last year.

Miss Moreland will have charge of day classes for women of the western part of the city and will teach English in the beginners' class in Franklin night school on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Mrs. Edith Ritter will have charge of the advanced students and classes will be held in the school building in the 1500 block on West Fourth street. A citizenship class for those taking out final naturalization papers, also will be held in this building every Wednesday night, under Lynn Crawford, of the high school faculty.

Costa Mesa classes will be conducted by Mrs. Minnie Reid each Monday and Tuesday afternoon in the Costa Mesa library rooms, whose use has been donated by G. E. Spencer. In Delhi, Miss Annabelle Knowles will hold day classes in the Delhi center and night classes on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, in the schoolhouse.

Night classes will meet from 7 to 9 o'clock, with no charges whatever for the students. Every foreign-born resident who wishes to learn English is urged to attend and those planning to become naturalized will find the citizenship classes with their work in American history and constitution an invaluable aid in passing the court examination.

There is a touch—but just a touch—of white at the collar and cuffs of some of the new black satins and crepes for day wear.

GIVEN JAIL TERM ON BOOZE CHARGE

Six months in the county jail was the term meted out to J. D. Laney, of Huntington Beach, by Superior Judge James L. Allen, yesterday after Laney had been found guilty of selling liquor. Laney was found guilty by a jury. It is understood that Laney is planning to appeal the case. He was arrested in a raid conducted several months ago under District Attorney Z. B. West Jr., and Sheriff Sam Jernigan.

BLAST BURNS ARE FATAL TO ANAHEIM YOUTH

Carl Horner, 20, son of R. O. Horner, Walnut avenue, Anaheim, passed away in Anaheim sanitarium, last night, as the result of burns received in an accident early Tuesday morning. Horner was burned when a gasoline tank on the spray rig owned by Elliott and Wilson, of Anaheim, exploded as it was being driven across the Santa Fe tracks. The tank is said to have exploded when the far throw gasoline over the exhaust of the truck.

The man ran for nearly a block after he had been showered with the blazing liquid. He was most seriously burned about the legs and the lower part of his body.

An inquest will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral chapel, in Anaheim. Funeral services will be held in the Backs, Terry and Campbell chapel at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment will be made in Santa Barbara. The Rev. Mr. Moody, of Anaheim, will conduct the service. The young man is survived by his father and one brother, Marvin Horner.

WILLIAM ELLIT PASSES AWAY IN SON'S HOME

While funeral services have not yet been completed for William H. Ellit, 88, whose death, this morning, in the home of his son, R. Earl Ellit, 1212 North Ross street, came as a shock to relatives and friends, it is believed that arrangements will be made to send the body back to the former family home in Wichita, Kan., for final services and burial.

Mr. Ellit was born in Kentucky, but had spent the greater part of his life in Kansas, coming to Santa Ana 12 years ago to make his home. For several weeks preceding his death, he had been in frail health because of his advanced age, but had been up and about the house for the last few days. This morning when the end came unexpectedly, he was sitting on the porch talking to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. R. Earl Ellit. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret F. Ellit, who is in Valley Center, Kans., with friends and relatives; two sons and two daughters, R. Earl Ellit and Thomas Ellit, of this city; Mrs. J. W. Highbarger, also of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Almeda Hart, of Pasadena.

WILLIAM DEAN NEW TOPARCH OF S. A. SCIOTS

Officers for the year 1929-1930 and delegates to attend the supreme convention in San Francisco, in November, were elected at the meeting of Santa Ana, pyramid, Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, last night. Election results were as follows:

Toparch, William J. Dean; Mobid, Elmer Smith; armistice, William R. Sylvester; pastophori, J. E. Walker; scribe, C. E. Carlson; chancellor, H. G. Lyman; trustee for three years, J. O. Smith; board of control for five years, W. J. Dean, and for three years, Elmer Smith.

William R. Sylvester and C. E. Carlson were elected delegates, with Elmer Smith and J. E. Walker as alternates.

A courtesy was extended retiring toparch N. E. Mayhill, when the pyramid voted him a life membership for the efficient services that he has so competently carried out during his term of office.

It was announced last night that on Saturday, September 13, Long Beach Sciots are to hold a dress reform parade and a ceremonial. Preceding the latter, a big parade will be staged, at 7 p. m., in which uniformed bodies of all Southern California will participate. The Lyblian Guard, the drum corps and many members of the Santa Ana pyramid will attend.

BEST AUTHORITIES UNABLE TO AGREE ON LEGAL PHASES OF DAM FIGHT, SAYS LAKE

Even the best legal authorities do not agree in the controversy over the upper Prado damsite and the lower site on the Santa Ana river, according to a statement made last night by Harry Lake, Garden Grove, at a meeting of the Garden Grove Farm center, in the Women's clubhouse there.

Lake is a member of the Associated Chambers of Commerce sub-committee, which was charged with investigating legal phases of the two sites. During the campaign for bonds to finance the flood control project in Orange county, it was argued on one side that Orange county would be taxed by Riverside county if it built a dam at the upper site, and on the other side it was argued that a tax could not be imposed.

In referring to the recent bond election, which was defeated, Lake declared that it was the man who uses water out of a faucet and not the irrigating farmer whose vote caused the bonds to fail.

As chairman of the fair board of Orange county, Lake reported that it appeared at present that the fair project would just about break even following this year's exhibitions. The hot weather during the fair was a handicap but, despite this fact, the attendance amounted to over 60,000, he reported.

A cup, won for the best community exhibit, was presented to the farm center last night by J. G. Allen, who declared that cooperation was responsible for winning the cup.

A committee to nominate candidates for office in the farm center was selected last night. The committee named includes E. J. Campbell, chairman; Henry Walworth, George Bushard, Mrs. W. H. Stennett and Ernest Wakeham.

A project committee, to outline an activities program for the next year, includes W. O. Broady, chairman; Andrew Smiley, Haney Carner, Sterling Price and Henry Luther.

The session last night honored Farm Advisor H. E. Wahlberg and was in the nature of a welcome to him, following his return from a trip through several western states. Wahlberg reviewed his trip and showed motion pictures depicting farming operations in the western states which he visited.

Refreshments were served to the group by Al Christiansen, member of the farm center.

complaint stated that the action had clouded his title and damaged it.

Norwood C. Nye, Santa Ana musician, was fined $250 and given a 90-day suspended jail sentence in Justice Andrew Wilson's court this morning on a charge of reckless driving. A charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor was dismissed at the request of the district attorney's office. Nye drove his automobile into a car owned by Dr. Roy Horton on August 30.

J. D. Laney, Huntington Beach, charged with selling liquor, in whose case a jury once has failed to agree, again was on trial today in Superior Judge James L. Allen's court. The regular jury panel was exhausted and a special venire of six was ordered to be drawn and to report forthwith in the court. Laney was arrested several months ago in a liquor raid conducted under District Attorney Z. B. West Jr. and Sheriff Sam Jernigan.

END EXAMS FOR LICENSES TODAY

ANAHEIM, Sept. 13.—Friday, the 13th will be an unlucky day for motorists of this city who do not take the examinations for new licenses on this date as today has been set as the last day when the examinations will be given in the city hall here. The examinations are being given all day and will be continued this evening.

LIONS TOLD OF WORLD TRIP BY CHARLES HEIL

Observations and impressions of customs and happenings in other lands, gained on a nine month's world tour, were told to Santa Ana Lions and their guests, yesterday, by Charles Heil, of Santa Ana, who returned recently from his trip.

Al Ketcham, chairman of the entertainment committee, introduced Heil, who prefaced his talk with a few remarks concerning the types of people to be found aboard trans-oceanic liners. According to the Santa Ana traveler they are much the same on all boats—the folks who are putting bridges all over the world by constantly playing bridge regardless of what is happening; those who attempt to drink the world dry, and those who spend their time in making personal contacts.

"China is in for trouble in its government," Heil prophesied. "There is no center of responsibility in the new Nationalistic government, with no outstanding man to direct and co-ordinate efforts. The heads of departments are all younger men of an average age of 30, according to an interesting young fellow whom I met there. He was a graduate of Boston Tech and his father was in the diplomatic service. This young man is head of the sanitation board in Nanking and I sat next to him on a train journey from Nanking to Shanghai. He said that the country needs money to develop water and transportation systems and that the only chance to get this aid is for the communities to group together and get outside financing. This results in a condition that is interpreted as Socialism."

"An experience in Singapore, when I attempted to reach the American Express company, brought to my attention that there are a few American companies that are exceedingly well known in the Orient. The rickshaw boy took me to the Singer Sewing Machine company office. This firm and the Standard Oil company and the International Harvester company are seemingly known to all."

"In the city of Colombo, Ceylon, the Moors are the chief merchants. Even the Jews cannot compete with them. Tea and rubber plantations, gem mining and coconut raising are the principal industries of Ceylon."

"In Jerusalem I had the privilege of meeting and talking with Rudyard Kipling, the famous British writer, who first was pointed out to me in the lobby by Dr. McQuinn, the British health officer."

"At Messina, Sicily, I wondered at the courage of the people who have rebuilt their city which was destroyed by a devastating earthquake, 20 years ago, with a loss of life totaling 100,000. The lemon groves, or gardens, as they call them, are interesting and I managed to get some pictures of the lemon industry to bring back."

"The story of the commercial and financial reorganization of all Hungary by an American who was sent to Budapest following the war, and the success that he achieved, was told to me while I was going through the palace of Emperor Franz Josef, in Vienna, and contrasted with the failure made by the European who was sent to Austria for the same purpose, but who got so interested in having a good time that he was sent back. This American was Jeremiah Smith, a Quaker, of Boston.

Americans Doing Things

Americans all over the world are doing wonderful things, reorganizing, planning and financing."

The Legion Auxiliary Glee club appeared before the club and sang several numbers, which were greatly appreciated by the club. The glee club presented to D. C. Clanton a token of its appreciation of his efforts in its behalf.

A delegation of visitors from Pomona was present yesterday and an invitation was extended by Bill Preston to attend Lions day at the Los Angeles County fair, in Pomona, September 17.

HISTORY OF COUNTY HOME IS OUTLINED

ORANGE, Sept. 13.—Introduced by Pearl Kendall Hess, Mrs. W. R. Tedford, of Santa Ana, a member of the juvenile court board of Orange county, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. here Tuesday.

Mrs. Tedford traced the history of the county home in Santa Ana from its inception in the office of the late Judge Z. E. West to the present day when the children in the home are housed in two buildings, each of which was built at a cost of $30,000.

The work of establishing the school was told by the speaker, who declared that three years were spent in arranging the project, as the consent of every school district, and every city in the county was gained before the matter was presented to the county supervisors. The board has seven members, three of whom are women. Mrs. Tedford has been a member of the board for the past 23 years, she said. The speaker told of the several young girls in the county and the disposal of their cases, declaring that the problem of dealing with delinquency in boys was a simple matter in comparison with dealing with problems involved in dealing with the girls.

The devotionals were led by Mrs. Emily Reed and the meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. N. H. Neville.

IS ABLE TO GO TO TOWN ALONE NOW, SHE SAYS

"Today is the first day I've been able to come down town alone in over six months and it was through the wonderful strengthening effect of Sargon that I was restored to splendid health."

MRS. ALICE BRADLEY

"Last fall I had a severe case of intestinal influenza and since then I've been completely run-down, unable to do any work and forced to spend most of my time in bed. I was so weak and nervous. My appetite was poor and nothing seemed to agree with me. Constipation, which has been chronic with me for about ten years, added to my troubles and it seemed I couldn't find a thing to help until I started taking Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills.

"I'm on my fourth bottle now and can truthfully say I feel better than in years. My appetite is fine, I digest my food perfectly and every trace of stomach trouble has disappeared. Thanks to the pills, for the first time in years I'm entirely free from constipation. I'll never forget what the Sargon treatment has done for me."

The remarkable experience above was recently related by Mrs. Alice Bradley, 355 Capp St., San Francisco.

Sargon may be obtained in Santa Ana at the Schramm-Johnson Drug Store.

North Orange street. Mr. Sonenburg and son are employed at the Shafter Tool works.

At the meeting of the Lions club Friday in the Boy Scout building E. J. Barnes, principal of the Olinda grammar school, was the principal speaker. He also gave several Spanish numbers, accompanied on the piano by his daughter, Miss Dorothy Barnes.

A guaranteed FISK Tire at an unusually low price

WHY buy inferior tires, put them on your self and do your own servicing . . . when you can buy a finer tire from us for the same price, or less?

We guarantee the Fisk Premier All-Cord to be the equal of any tire sold today at the price. And our records show that the Fisk Premier always outlasts our guarantee. Fisk Premier must make good, or we will.

We have other Fisk All-Cord Tires; some more expensive than the Premier, some costing less. But if you figure your tire costs on a mileage basis it doesn't make much difference which Fisk you buy—every tire made by Fisk will give you full mileage for your money.

Let us replace that old tire with a new Fisk All-Cord today. We take your old tire in trade.

Santa Fe Railway Named Defendant In $36,145 Action

Damages in the amount of $36,145 were requested in a suit filed today by Ely W. Shipley and Lola Shipley against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad. The complaint stated that a car driven by Lola Shipley had been struck by a Santa Fe train at a crossing over Spadra road on May 25. The locomotive was travelling at a negligent speed and gave no warning of its approach, according to the complaint, which said that Lola Shipley was seriously injured in the crash at the crossing. The suit was filed through Kenneth H. Burns, Santa Ana attorney.

HE SUFFERED FOR TEN YEARS

Then ALL-BRAN Brought Relief in 2 Months—Doctor Recommended It

Constipation is dreaded not only for its own insidious self, but because of the many serious conditions and diseases it causes. Mr. Lind was a sufferer—but read how he found relief.

"For the past 10 years I have suffered from piles. At times I have been unable to work. I have tried suppositories, ointments, etc., but to no avail. Two months ago my grocer called my attention to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I began taking it regularly. Immediately the pain and annoyance from the piles was relieved. I found that it requires very little ALL-BRAN to give nature a fair chance to effect a cure."—WALTER J. LIND, R. 2, Box 181, Appleton, Wis.

Don't neglect constipation. At any time its poisons may take terrible toll from your health and well-being. Protect yourself. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly—two table-spoonfuls daily, or in chronic cases, with every meal. ALL-BRAN brings sure, natural relief. It is what doctors call a bulk food. It sweeps the intestine clean and stimulates normal action.

Ready-to-eat with milk or cream. Also try the recipe on the package. Results guaranteed. Doctors recommend it because it is 100% bran. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Served in hotels, restaurants, and dining cars. Sold by all grocers.

Armed Men Guard Spinal Meningitis Victim In Arizona

MIAMI, Ariz., Sept. 13.—(UP)—Armed men were posted around a building here today to prevent anyone from approaching the structure, in which an eight-year-old Mexican girl is dangerously ill with spinal meningitis.

County officials ordered the drastic method of guarding it in an attempt to curb the disease, which has caused several deaths and many cases of illness in this vicinity in recent months.

Supervisors of Gila county have voted $30,000 for a temporary isolation hospital and a permanent institution is planned.

Dr. H. A. Spencer of the United States department of public health, Washington, D. C., has been assigned to Gila county to aid local physicians in an effort to ascertain the source of the outbreak.

DOBBS HATS

The magic lantern and the lecture hall have given place to the talking movies and the Moving Picture Palace. The art of hat manufacture has progressed as far and as notably. Dobbs Hats, as compared with the crude productions of past generations, are the evidence. The styles for Fall are ready.

Union Officials Oppose Printing Work In Schools

SEATTLE, Sept. 13.—(UP)—With Charles P. Howard, president, leading the attack, the executive committee of the International Typographical union, now in convention here, today was expected to go on record opposing printing instruction in public and private schools.

The committee was to place the matter before the convention in annual report.

Howard declared such instruction "taking printing out of the competitive field, is the worst form of state socialism."

LUGGAGE For Short Trips

Kit Bag

For short trips nothing has been more popular among men during recent years than the kit bag. The one shown is of brown shrunk walrus leather, made with hand sewed frame and leather lined.

Visiting Case

The woman who likes to take a hat for each costume which she plans to wear on her trip will especially appreciate this week-end case, for it contains a partitioned hat tray. The case is of black enamel and is made over a steel frame with straps all around.

If you had to fry a dozen chickens you wouldn't fry them

all at once

For the same reason, Hills Bros roast their coffee a few pounds at a time instead of in bulk. This continuous process—Controlled Roasting, produces a matchless, uniform flavor.

SUPPOSE you did try to fry them all at once. What a time you'd have cooking that tender meat evenly!

The right way to fry a lot of chickens is obviously one at a time. That's just the way Hills Bros. roast their fine blend of coffee. By their patented, continuous process—Controlled Roasting. Never in bulk. Only a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters and the flavor is perfectly controlled because every berry is roasted evenly.

No bulk-roasting process can produce the matchless, uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee. And you get all this delicious goodness because Hills Bros. Coffee is sealed in vacuum tins at the time of roasting.

Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name. To be sure, look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can. Hills Bros. Coffee is sold everywhere.

HILLS BROS COFFEE

Fresh from the original vacuum pack. Easily opened with the key.

HOW TO GET VOTES

1 Any woman or girl over sixteen years of age is eligible. All contestants must first be nominated by someone. You can, if you desire, nominate yourself. No employee or relative of any Majestic dealer, or of this newspaper, can compete. Go to your nearest Majestic radio dealer for full details of this contest.

2 Votes are obtained as follows: 10,000 votes upon signing nomination or entry blank (only one to a candidate). 500 votes to each adult registering at the store of a Majestic radio dealer. 50-vote coupon is in all Majestic radio advertisements. 20-vote coupon appears in this paper every day during the contest. 50 votes are given with every theatre admission ticket to any local Fox-West Coast Theatre. 10,000 votes go with every Majestic sale. Persons receiving votes have exclusive privilege of designating to whom votes are to be credited.

3 All votes must be inserted in ballot box. No votes will be received by mail. Ballot boxes are located at Majestic dealers listed below and at Fox-West Coast Theatres. In case of tie, two identical grand prizes will be awarded.

The undersigned Majestic Radio Dealers are sponsoring this contest and guarantee fair impartial treatment for all contestants. Call on your nearest Majestic dealer today and register for a 500 vote certificate that can be cast for the candidate of your choice.

TWO WEEKS left for the gigantic Majestic Radio Popularity Contest—still a lot of time to enter this contest and win the 1930 Majestic Radio. You want to win the Majestic—you have hundreds of friends—you can make your popularity earn this prize for you! Don't put it off a single minute—enter today!

Register at a Majestic Dealer

Right now go to any local Majestic dealer and sign a nomination blank. It will start you off with 10,000 votes. If you put a little time and effort into the contest you can pile up tens of thousands of votes in a few days and have a lot of fun doing it. Just imagine yourself being declared the winner! You can't expect to be the most popular girl unless you enter. Every day you delay is costly. See your dealer today.

A Square Deal for Everybody

This contest is sponsored by local Majestic dealers, in cooperation with this newspaper and Fox-West Coast Theatres. All contestants are assured that their interests will be safeguarded. Ballot counting is certified and under the direction of a group of reputable citizens. You may be assured that when you cast your ballots that your favorite candidates will receive your votes.

Hear the New Majestic!

This popularity contest was conceived to celebrate the popularity of Majestic radio. Throughout the Nation, the West and Southern California, Majestic radios have shattered all records for sales. This can mean only one thing—that in face of stiffest price competition Majestic has outstripped all rivals. ## INTERIOR VIEWS OF NEW VANDERMAST, INC. STORE

Upper left shows part of the hat and shirt departments while in the picture directly below is the children's department. Upper right shows the children's play room which is said to be something unique in men's furnishing stores and is a work of art. The new Vandermast store was thrown open to the public yesterday and with floral tributes from various merchants of the city was a veritable flower garden.

MORE THAN 7000 PERSONS AT OPENING OF NEW STORE OF VANDERMAST AND SON, INC.

A constant stream of interested citizens visited the new home of Vandermast and Son, Inc., at Broadway and Fourth street from 3 o'clock until 10 p. m., yesterday. One of the finest men's apparel establishments in Santa Ana and one of the oldest haberdasheries in this city was open for inspection and at least 7000 persons took advantage of the formal opening to pass through the remodeled store building.

What was considered one of the finest merchandising displays in the history of the Vandermast clothing store, was witnessed yesterday. Men's wearing apparel for autumn and winter seasons furnished attraction not only to the better dressers among men, but new modes led women to the store to view children's wear.

Over 2000 carnations and roses were given away to women visiting the place before the supply ran out and cigars were souvenir gifts to the men. Punch was served in the downstairs salesroom, which was visited by many men and women interested in the latest dress for boys and in the playroom designed by Miss Dorothy Ramsey, 16-year-old artist and daughter of Merl Ramsey. The latter was responsible for the decoration of the remodeled building.

Books Given Children
Nursery rhyme and fairy tale books, and squawker balloons delighted the hearts of little children who came with their parents to the opening. Youngsters were enthusiastic in their approval of the Vandermast, Inc., and in their own noisy manner, assisted by the balloons, let that enthusiasm be known.

Walter Vandermast, president; E. T. Mateer, vice president; Carl Stein, secretary of the new Vandermast Inc., and Asa Vandermast, founder of the Vandermast and Son clothing store here 26 years ago, assisted by a group of competent salesmen greeted the visitors and extended them every courtesy throughout the new establishment yesterday.

Congratulatory baskets of colorful bouquets made the building a veritable hower of flowers. Show cases, corners, shelves and every available portion of the store not in use for display purposes boasted floral compliments of early fall grace. Cartwright's orchestra assembled on the mezzanine floor furnished entertaining musical numbers for the opening feature.

A letter received at The Register this morning from Carl Stein, general manager of Vandermast, Inc., reveals the public-spirited feeling and merchandising progress that the establishment possesses. Stein wrote:

Letter From Stein
"I have received many people today and have certainly been impressed with the friendly attitude displayed towards this store, and I want to emphasize to those people and all others of this community that all of my efforts in the future, as in the past, will be directed towards carrying out the Vandermast policy of fair merchandising.

"I feel that the merchants of Santa Ana are to be congratulated on their newspapers. I know that we appreciate the wonderful co-operation that we have had from them. Ours is not a new on their progress in this community from the following firms: H. A. Seinsheimer, Cincinnati, O.; Alstul Stern and Company, Max B. Brummer and Son Inc., New England Hat company, New York; Louis Goldsmith Inc., Silvertex company, Pincus Brothers Inc., Philadelphia, Penn.; Alfred Decker and Cohn, Chicago, Ill.; H. B. Glover company, Dubuque, Ia.; Levi Strauss and Co., Sauter and Sons, San Francisco; and the Western Union Telegraph company, Santa Ana.

Among the many letters received were those of the Seattle Cap Manufacturers company and the Goodenow textiles.

Many Floral Tributes

Santa Ana families and firms sending flowers to Vandermast's new location included: Don Marks, E. McGarriss, Wayne Quington, Walter Gleason, Katherine Shoppe, Green Cat cafe, Earl Morrow, Hamlin, S. ## WALKER NAMED ASSISTANT TO U. S. ATTORNEY

Announcement was made today of the appointment of Sharpless Walker, for a number of years an attorney in Santa Ana, as assistant in the office of Attorney Sam McNabb. The announcement followed McNabb's return from Washington, where he had been in conference concerning income tax fraud cases against prominent film stars in Los Angeles.

Walker practiced in Santa Ana for a number of years, having been associated with former Superior Judge F. C. Drumm and later with James L. Davis, with whom he had been working for about two and one-half years until last April, when he began practice in Los Angeles.

For 20 years before coming to Santa Ana Walker was practicing in Miles City, Mont. He served for three terms as county attorney of Custer county, Mont.

POLICE ASKED TO HUNT FOR RANCHER

Sheriff's officers today were requested to search for Lawrence M. German, 47, ranch hand, who disappeared from his home on the Irvine ranch, June 15, with his pay and part of his clothes.

The man was the sole support of his mother, according to a report made to authorities.

German has blue eyes and brown hair, is six feet in height and weighs 130 pounds. He had been employed on the ranch for two years, it was reported.

Is your child undernourished?

Surprising results disclosed by New York survey

A SURVEY of one million school children conducted by the Department of Health of the city of New York, disclosed that 20% of the children were seriously undernourished and in need of a physician's care. More than 60% were reported "on the border line" of malnutrition. Only a trifle more than 17% were found to be normal. This survey was not limited to the so-called poorer classes. It was representative of the entire city. It indicated that four children out of every five are in immediate need of a more carefully selected diet.

Mothers should see that their children eat sufficiently of milk, fruit and vegetable foods. The important step is to make these foods so enjoyable that children will eat them.

Authorities recommend a little sugar used judiciously to assist mothers in making foods appetizing. A small sprinkling of sugar on cereals, as one eminent food scientist phrases it, takes the "fight" out of eating cereal. Citrous and other fresh fruits, berries, stewed fruits, are made more appetizing by a dash of sugar. Wise mothers make junkets, blanc-mange, custards, and other milk desserts to encourage the eating of milk.

Note this: If you want to improve the taste of healthful vegetables just add a dash of sugar to them while they are cooking (preferably in little water). Try it and you will be amazed how much more tasteful the vegetables become. Candy, ice cream and coolies are recommended for dessert. A bit of sweet makes the meal complete. ## You have a Doctor's Word for this Laxative

IN 1875, an earnest young man began to practice medicine. As a family doctor, he treated many cases of constipation. He soon saw the harm in common purges and began to seek something better. Out of his experience was born a famous prescription now in wide use.

This prescription was written thousands of times. It proved an ideal laxative for old and young. Children like its pleasant taste. Older people like it because it doesn't gripe or cause discomfort. It is a mixture of fresh herbs and other pure ingredients; thoroughly effective for the most robust of men. Stimulates the normal muscular action of the bowels. So its use will not become a habit. As people saw how marvelously the most sluggish bowels are started and bad breath, headaches, biliousness, feverishness or no energy, poor appetite, etc., are relieved by Dr. Caldwell's prescription, it became necessary to put it up ready for use.

Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. All drug stores have the generous bottles. The product never varies from Dr. Caldwell's original formula. So you can take it with confidence or give it to the youngest child.

Today, the tenth day in the Great Majestic radio Popularity contest, Found a greater Amount of interest Manifested than Any other day since The competition For the beautiful Radios to be Awarded as prizes Began in Santa Ana— Today found five New entries in The field and all Were determined to Pick up, as soon as Possible, the number Of votes separating Them from the Leaders and, with This in view, all had Cohorts in the field Securing votes— The new candidates Today are Dorothy Hatch, Florence Comite, Mildred Van Slyke, Phyllis Pope and Ethel Germaine— Helen Woodfill still Was leading the Race today with a Total of 85,680 votes To her credit, but She is being closely Followed by two or Three contestants Who threaten Constantly to take The lead away From her— The candidates entering Today realize that, Although Miss Woodfill Appears to be far Ahead, a couple of Days' hard work Will carry them to Within striking Distance—

Our attention was Called yesterday To the desire Of one contestant, who Is planning on Moving away from Santa Ana, to Withdraw and throw her Votes to another Candidate— That, however, will Not be allowed, for the Unfairness of such procedure easily Can be seen— For instance, on the Closing days of The contest there Most likely would be A number of Contestants who would Like to do likewise And if it were Permitted radical Changes would occur at The last minute In the ballot scores, With the many days' Hard work of many Counting for naught— The girl in Question, however, May make arrangements, If she wishes, to Have her friends Carry on her campaign For her after She has moved away

Here's some news: KFWB is to present A program every Monday night, Beginning at 8 o'clock Next Monday night, In direct competition With the Jamboree Offered by KHJ— It will be known as The First National hour—

MISS WOODFILL LEADING WITH 85,680 VOTES

Miss Helen Woodfill is leading the Majestic Radio Popularity contest today with a total of 85,680 votes.

"I want the Majestic 'Highboy,'" said Miss Woodfill as she deposited enough votes to swell her total to 85,680 votes. "I have plenty of friends working for me and I hope to top the list when the contest closes."

Standings of the contestants on the tenth day of the contest were as follows:

Helen Woodfill	85,680
Hazel Miller LePage	70,995
Martha Manning	67,955
Margaret Young	64,895
Izetta Judd	36,945
Wilda Rohrer	30,770
Lucille Giesler	25,855
Mary Short	23,990
Ethel Marie Hoffman	20,500
Doris Dolin	16,400
Gertrude Scheffer	15,671
Ellen Sneyley	15,570
Jennie Pospesil	14,165
Ethel Germaine	13,970
Mrs. Ethel Eggleston	13,220
Evelyn Sharer	12,125
Hazel M. Taylor	12,060
Mildred Van Slyke	11,910
Peggy Goodrich	11,100
Phyllis Pope	10,970
Dorothy Hatch	10,300
Florence Comite	10,140
Doris Clark	10,100
Dorothy Carter	10,000

The large number of votes cast on the first 10 days of the contest indicates the interest that the contest has aroused. It is apparent to the committee in charge that the way the girls are working that interest is at fever heat and there will be no lagging from now on.

The Majestic Highboy that will go to the winner is identical with any of the instruments now on display at Majestic dealers' stores here. When it is presented to

Hyde Will Speak On Rivers During Program For RCA

In a musical setting appropriately suggesting his theme, Henry M. Hyde will speak on "Rivers" during the RCA hour broadcast through NBC system stations, including KFI, beginning at 8 o'clock tonight.

Preceding the educational lecture, the RCA orchestra, under Max Dolin's direction will offer Rubinstein's "Kamennoi-Ostrov," a famous musical picture of Stone Island in the River Neva. Margaret O'Dea, contralto, will follow Hyde's talk with Burleigh's arrangement of the Negro spiritual, "Deep River."

Tenor solos by Harold Spaulding will be other highlights of the 60-minute program. "Daffodils," a charming lyric by Wordsworth-Seely, and Del Riego's "Slave Song" will be his numbers.

WARDWEAR

.... the finest tire for the money in America today!

WARDWEAR is Montgomery Ward & Co.'s low-priced tire. In the low-priced field, we say it is the finest value you can buy... and a few of the facts about WARDWEAR will quickly show you why... Check this tire first for genuine, built-in quality. You find it is a companion tire to our nationally-famous RIVERSIDE line... It is designed in the same careful manner... built in the same fine, modern factories... supervised in the same fashion at every stage of construction... in short, exactly the kind of tire, in materials, workmanship and performance, you would expect to be the best you could buy at its price.

For your further protection, however, we give the WARDWEAR a definite, specific guarantee as to the mileage it will give you on the road... Ten thousand miles of minimum service you can be sure of, using any size WARDWEAR... Not "claimed" miles—but guaranteed miles. Not a part of our "selling talk"—but the actual foundation of our service to the customer...

Back of this 10,000-mile guarantee you find that WARDWEAR prices save you a good many dollars that can be used for other purposes. Don't, therefore, make the mistake of paying more for any other tire unless more miles are guaranteed.

That, after all, is your safest and surest guide in tire buying, The DEFINITE GUARANTEE. Not a series of "claims" or "assertions"... but specific certainty of performance, given in advance. In the case of WARDWEAR, moreover, you're further protected by the responsibility of a nation-wide, 57-year-old organization—and by its original guarantee of "Satisfaction or Your Money Back" that today applies to more than 40,000 different articles of merchandise...

Visit our store and examine personally this finest tire for the money in America today. At its prices, your saving will be substantial... and thanks to its guarantee, your satisfaction is absolutely certain.

FAVOR TO THE WEAK

Under a new rule in baseball, first-year men can be claimed by the waiver route for the regular waiver price of $7500. Hereafter if a club paid $50,000 for a player and then asked waivers on him, the club claiming him would have to pay the original cost price.

Thus high prices for players becomes a greater gamble than ever for the major league magnates. Club owners will consider a long time before putting out a lot of money for a player whose only resale value is $7500. The rule will favor the weaker clubs, better enabling them to compete with the others in the ivory market.

Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, has a number of promising players. He must decide which he will keep next spring, since he cannot farm them out again; he must sell them to another club or keep them.

M'GRAW ROLLS UP SLEEVES
Being on the Giant payroll these days is much like sitting on the edge of Vesuvius and waiting for something to happen. The team has not played up to McGraw's hopes; the master mind is rolling up his sleeves and taking out the old ax.

Bill Terry, Melvin Ott, Freddie Lindstrom and Travis Jackson seem certain of their jobs, along with one or two other stars, but most of the others can't feel so sure. During the winter drastic changes are sure to be made.

During the recent Cub-Red series in Cincinnati, trouble was expected as a sequel to the Wilson-Kolp-Donahue incident. All was calm. In this respect Jack Kenney, sports editor of the Lowell Mass. Sun, has some interesting comment. Here it is:

STRATEGY?

You can call it strategy; we'll call it psychology and everybody'll be lappy. Bob Hart of this fair city is a National League umpire and besides, he is a big man. Back in the halcyon days Bob was a roller polo goalie and weathered many splitting sweeps of a big stick that would rent an ordinary telegraph pole open and broken from stem to stern. Hart is an amiable chap, but under the skin he is as tough as a losing football coach between the halves.

Well, it seems that the league magnates feared a recurrence of the Cubs-Reds outbreak when the two teams collided in Cincinnati. Cincinnati hinted of a "reception" for "Hack" Wilson.

When the blood rivals prepared for the opening of the new series last Sunday, Bob Hart was supposed to come east to work the Phillips-Braves game at Boston. However, surprising news came that Bob was to shift to Cincinnati. Bob didn't reveal his orders, of course, but went out there to work. There he met Moran and Quigley, brother umpires, who are by no means in the class of weaklings in the many art of quelling a riot. Wonder how many fans attached any significance to that fact that three of the biggest umpires in the circuit were assigned to that game? No trouble came out of the return game, but if the stopper popped off, what were Hart, Moran and Quigley supposed to do?

VANCE, WANER, GEHRIG TO BE TRADED, BELIEF

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
(N.S. Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—In view of the fact that the boy friend, Mr. B. Ruth, is having some trouble today in deciding how much less than $100,000 he will be willing to accept next year, it occurs to me that I can be helpful by mentioning that "Daddy" Vance, Paul Waner and Lou Gehrig are said to be on the market at the end of the season.

This report is cited only because I wish to aid Mr. Ruth in reaching a decision. The three men named got all they could out of baseball last spring and baseball has been trying to get something out of them ever since.

Signed in Compromise
Vance got $25,000 from the Dodgers and has been worth something in excess of $2500.

Waner indulged himself in a family strike in company with brother Lloyd, both finally signing at a compromise figure. Paul got more money than his brother and proceeded to play much less baseball.

Gehrig got $25,000 and on occasions has played better at Columbia university.

Baseball, therefore, is in no mood to meet demands, no matter who makes them.

To do Mr. Ruth justice, it must be admitted that the size of his pay check has had no visible effect on his ball playing. He hasn't had even the suggestion of a bad year since 1925, and, in some respects, the present year is his greatest.

Would Like $100,000
Also it may be said that Mr. Ruth never has set $100,000 as his arguing point for 1930. He merely said that he would like to get $100,000, thereby distinguishing himself from those who wouldn't like to get it. He probably will wind up by accepting $100,000 more than the Yankees originally were willing to pay him, which won't be too much, whatever it is.

Mr. Ruth is an old man now and it won't be long before kind hands bear him tenderly away from the scene. But, as he goes, the structure of a marvelous career is rearing itself higher and higher by the day. This gent is the greatest of them all and he is proving it more than ever this year by staking everybody in the home run derby to five weeks' start and then leading them home in a gallop. Continuing his current pace Mr. Ruth will hit at least 50 home runs this year, a total that compares favorably with his 54 of 1920, his 59 of a year or so later and his 60 of 1927.

Icemen Quit Jobs; Leave For Football

There was a sudden dearth of ice-men in Santa Ana and Newport Beach today.

Four husky young gentlemen had thrown away their ice-picks and were preparing to leave for college campuses to battle for varsity football jobs.

They were Harvey Durkee, Ray Dawson, Charley Ehrhorn and Harvey Bear.

Durkee seeks a place at end at U. S. C. Dawson wants to be a guard at Stanford. He lost 15 pounds carrying ice this summer and is down to a mere 184. Ehrhorn, weighing 200, will go out for tackle at Stanford. Bear, who has not played football for several years, will be a backfield candidate at Pomona. Bear is Pomona's ace sprinter on the track squad.

NIGHT BALL TO END YEAR WITH $250 IN BANK

For the first time in its history, the Santa Ana Night Baseball association this year will terminate its season with a substantial bank account.

Meeting for the last time at Ketter's cafe yesterday, the Commission of the association heard this encouraging report from A. Dean Collier, treasurer.

Collier said the organization had a balance of approximately $500 which outstanding debts and requirements will reduce to about $350. The association closed its books last year with a balance of less than a dollar.

This year's profit will be carried over and give the association something with which to start its 1930 campaign. For the last two seasons the commission, composed of President Elwayne Wilcox, Treasurer Dean Collier, Horace Snow, Ed L. Vegely, Otto A. Jacobs, Ralph Cole and Eddie West, has been forced to sign personal bank notes to start the ball rolling.

Without a dissenting vote, the commission acted to reward members of the Santa Ana Star team, runner-up for the Orange County league championship, for their services throughout the season. The Stars will receive handsome leather athletic coats. Otherwise the men receive no recompense, playing merely for the love of the sport.

The commission also voted a contribution of $25 to the fund for the American Legion Auxiliary Glue club's proposed trip to the National Legion convention in Louisville, Ky.

President Wilcox, outlining plans for the future, briefly sketched the growth of night baseball here. Activity began more than 10 years ago on a vacant lot on East Fourth street. Property on French street, now occupied by the Ebell club, was the second location. The next playground was the Y. M. C. A. and after that the high school, then Lincoln field and now the Bowl at Sixth and Olive streets which is absolutely the finest thing of its kind in Southern California.

John Wilcox, business manager of the Stars, explained the organization of the new Southern California Major league in which Santa Ana will play next summer with Anaheim, Long Beach, Whittier, Riverside, Pomona, Colton and Arlington.

TWILIGHT LEAGUERS IN SERIES TUESDAY

The series between the Shell Oil company and the Dennis Printers for the championship of the Santa Ana Twilight league will begin next Tuesday night.

The second game will be played Thursday and the third, if necessary, sometime the following week. All contests will be played in the Bowl at night. Admission will be 10 cents.

Joe Harless and "Eeny" Wilcox have been appointed official umpires for the series. The Shell Oils won the first half of the split season. The Dennis Printer took the second half.

FIVE FRESHMEN GRIDDERS JOIN COLLEGE SQUAD

By "SKY" DUNLAP

Coinciding with the opening of "Freshman Week" at Santa Ana Junior college was the enrolling of five more promising recruits to Coach Bill Cook's football machine.

Out of the numerous boys entering college here for the first time, Cook hopes for quite a number of players. Quite a few freshmen already have checked out suits.

The newcomers are Leonard Natland, quarterback from Garden Grove; Al Kluthe, captain and center from Anaheim; Baxter Goetting, halfback from San Diego; Barney Dungan, guard and Philipp Martin, end and half from Excelsior.

Kluthe May Be Regular

Kluthe is perhaps the surest of the lot to play regularly, for he is slated to take the center job of Bill Crawford, who has been shifted to fullback. Kluthe is a tall and rangy six-footer, with a reputation of being the best center in the Orange league last year.

Lloyd ("Red") Manderscheid, who has been expected daily, was at school yesterday. He left college in February and had to take the exams for eligibility. If he comes out satisfactorily, Coach Cook will have two good fullbacks, for Manderscheid is hard as a rock and line plunger of no little ability and Bill Crawford, the other full, is fast and heavy.

In practice yesterday, Cook gave out several more plays and placed his men in tentative positions. The lineup he used was not the probable regular one by far, but presented food for thought at least.

Using an uneven line, the following players were used: Ed Adams, end; Smith Griswold, guard; Al Kluthe, center; Barney Dungan, guard; Tim Wallace, tackle; Ernest Stump, tackle; George Warner, end; Melvin Beatty, quarter; Al Dunham and Franklin VanMeter, halves and Bill Crawford, fullback. Four other backs who showed up good were Leonard Natland, quarter; Jack Dutton, fullback; "Keneth" Tanaka, half and Julian Martinez, half. Warner called signals again. Several more prospects for the kicking jobs were discovered yesterday. Ed Adams, Melvin Beatty, Julian Martinez and Bill Crawford were all pushing them out yesterday. Martinez also had a nice pass to look at.

'Bull' Montana Is Thrown By 'Kid' Cupid

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—Love has clamped a headlock on "Bull" Montana, the movie gentleman who wears two cauliflower ears as his diploma of the wrestling and boxing ring.

"Bull" and Mary Poulson Mathews, who is 23, blonde, a secretary and a widow, plan to be married sometime next week.

"Dis love, had, throw me pretty hard," announced Montana, long the accepted human gorilla of the films. "How I love dis woman." He demonstrated with a strangling half-nelson hold about her neck.

"Bull" proved to be a shy fellow. He blushingly admitted that he was 41, a movie "star" and did wrestling as a side line.

VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE FORMED AT Y.M.C.A.

Volleyball plans were put on the way at a meeting yesterday of interested members at the Y. M. C. A. who determined to organize their league and start play at once.

A league of six teams of six men each will be formed. Team captains selected were Dr. Frank Ashmore, Dr. K. A. Lerch, Coleman Hickey, Charles Marcher, Dr. Fred Huber and Howard Barrows.

These captains will be called together shortly to select their players. The schedule of games will be posted as soon as possible thereafter.

The plan calls for league games every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 6 p. m. The regular gymnasium class for business men will start at 5 o'clock on those afternoons, with 45 minutes of free-for-all volleyball, and 15 minutes calisthenics which will end at 6 o'clock, with the league games to follow immediately. Gym classes have been starting previously at 5:15 o'clock.

Miss Cruickshank Near State Finals

Miss Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana tennis star, will play for the woman's singles championship of California if she succeeds in defeating Dorothea Schwartz at Berkeley today. The winner of the Cruickshank-Schwartz match will oppose Dorothea Weisel for the title. Miss Cruickshank is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cruickshank.

Acorns, Rubs Renew Night Ball Series

All square on the second green, Long Beach and Riverside tonight renew their battle for the Southern California night baseball championship with the situation the way it was when they started. The teams play at Long Beach tonight, at Riverside Tuesday and in Santa Ana Friday, September 20.

Because of Long Beach's apparent apathy toward the series there is a possibility that Santa Ana fans, by starting early, might obtain good seats at tonight's game which will be played at the Acorn park, 811 West Anaheim street.

Lloyd Lichtenwalter, sensational young right hander, probably will work for the Acorns, according to Manager Roy Hitt. "Slim Jim" Duncan will be Riverside's nominee again, it is understood.

Long Beach will present a slightly altered lineup. Maness will be back in left field. Noel will go to right field or first base. Riverside won the first game of the series, 4 to 3. Long Beach took the second, 3 to 0.

'Tuffy' Griffiths Stops Dr. Haymann

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Another of those many foreign heavyweights who have been cluttering up American rings of late was ready for his return ticket to the Fatherland today.

Dr. Ludwig Haymann, heavyweight champion of Germany, went down to defeat last night when his chin stopped the hard right fist of "Tuffy" Griffiths after 2 minutes, 33 seconds of fighting in the fourth round of a fight that was to have gone 10 rounds.

MONROVIA TILT ALSO DEFINITE: BACKS MISSING

Santa Ana's 1929 football season will begin officially one week from today. Coach "Tex" Oliver's high school eleven will meet Coach Stewart White's Orange squad on Poly field, at 3:15 p. m.

This set-to was arranged tentatively Wednesday, but the "tentative" part of the agreement was removed today following a conference between Oliver and White. Santa Ana's tilt with Monrovia high school, scheduled for the following Friday, September 27, also was made definite. The Saints will go to Monrovia for that tussle, however.

The Orange battle will be a severe early season test for Santa Ana. The Orangemen are pre-season favorites to win the Orange County league, now Fullertonless, and they have been hard at work, in the mountains and on the gridiron, for three weeks whereas the Saints have just begun serious practice.

With the possibility that three of his star backs will be missing from the game with Orange, Oliver will be forced to try out several of his lesser lights behind the line.

Al Reboin, star quarter, and Norman Paul, and Don Crumley, halfbacks, may not see action that day. Reboin has a slight cold and has been in suit only one day while Paul is working and hardly will be in condition to play on such short notice. Crumley has a sore foot and can not put on a

Ruth Must Stand Slice In Salary

Mr. Ruth was younger and faster and stiller. He has gone back a whole lot; he isn't even as silly as he used to be. But life has its compensations. We lose something we don't want and save others that are indispensable. Mr. Ruth isn't as fast going down to first base or going out the front door of an evening, but he still has his eyesight, and, with this great asset, goes as fine a spirit as ever has been seen on the ball field.

It may be taken for granted that, whatever the 1930 contract calls for, Mr. Ruth will deserve what he gets. Personally, however, I feel that justice would be better served if he gets what he deserves.

TILDEN MEETS DOEG IN TENNIS TOURNEY

BY MALCOLM ROY
(I. N. S. Special Correspondent)

FOREST HILLS, L. I., Sept. 13.—John Doeg, of Santa Monica, Calif., was to sum up the case against "Big Bill" Tilden in the semi-final round of the men's national singles championship in the west side stadium this afternoon. Tilden is aspiring to win the national title for the seventh time.

Tilden will go into the match favored to win but will be forced to play at top speed. It has been increasingly evident in this tournament that Tilden has gone back quite a bit. He had an exceedingly difficult time in disposing of Frank Shields Tuesday and after a somewhat easier contest against Henry M. Culley of Cambridge Wednesday he caught another tartar yesterday in the quarter-finals when he squeezed through against John Van Ryn, former Princeton captain.

The other semi-final bracket brings Francis L. Hunter of New Rochelle, finalist last year against Henri Cochet, against Fritz Mercur of Bethlehem, Pa.

Community Players Launch Membership Campaign

1929 SEASON TO BE OPENED ON OCTOBER 17

With little more than a month to elapse before the first play to be presented by the Santa Ana Community Players' association in opening the season of 1929-30, the membership committee, of which Frank Lansdown is chairman, today was launching its annual campaign with a view to enlarging the sustaining membership list to be in keeping with the increase in population of Santa Ana.

When first organized for the presentation of plays during the winter and spring months of 1920, the association attempted to meet all its expenses from the ticket sales for individual plays, but as time went on and it was seen that the community as a whole was standing back of the Players with full realization and appreciation of the cultural advantages to be derived from the existence of so original a feature of the city's entertainment and social life, the sustaining membership plan was conceived and put into effect.

Assures Working Fund
Sustaining members are those who, at the beginning of the season, volunteer to take two tickets for each of the four performances of the season, paying $10 for the reservations, with the privilege of selecting any seats wished for each individual performance. By this means, the Players are assured of a working fund with which to approach the opening of their season, and its consequent demands upon an exchequer that is never filled to the saturation point.

"Expenses of play production are heavy," today explained W. H. Spurgeon, president of the association. "There is the rental of a theater, in the first place, a big item in a city boasting no civic auditorium. Heat, lights, tickets, etc., are minor phases of this one expense. Royalty fees, or the charges exacted by publishers for the use of their plays, form another item of considerable amount, varying from $75 to $150 for each production.

"The services of a director are to be paid for, while advertising, scenery, programs, costumes and stage settings are all to be considered when it comes to the outlay of funds. It is to be noted, however, that scenery and costume committees work to keep their expenditures at the lowest possible sum, so that materials alone are all that need be considered."

See Successful Season
The 1929-30 season promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the association, and will open on October 17, with James Matthew Barrie's delightful play, "Alice-Sit-By-the-Fire," with Ernest Crozier Phillips directing. Phillips was one of the founders of the association and its first and only director for a period of several years. November 21, 22 and 23; February 6, 7 and 8, and April 3, 4 and 5 are dates selected for the remaining plays of the season.

It is the intention of Lansdown to conduct an intensive ticket-selling campaign during this coming week and to the list of sustaining members of previous years add many new names of those who have come to Santa Ana in the last few months to establish their homes and take active part in all civic and cultural affairs.

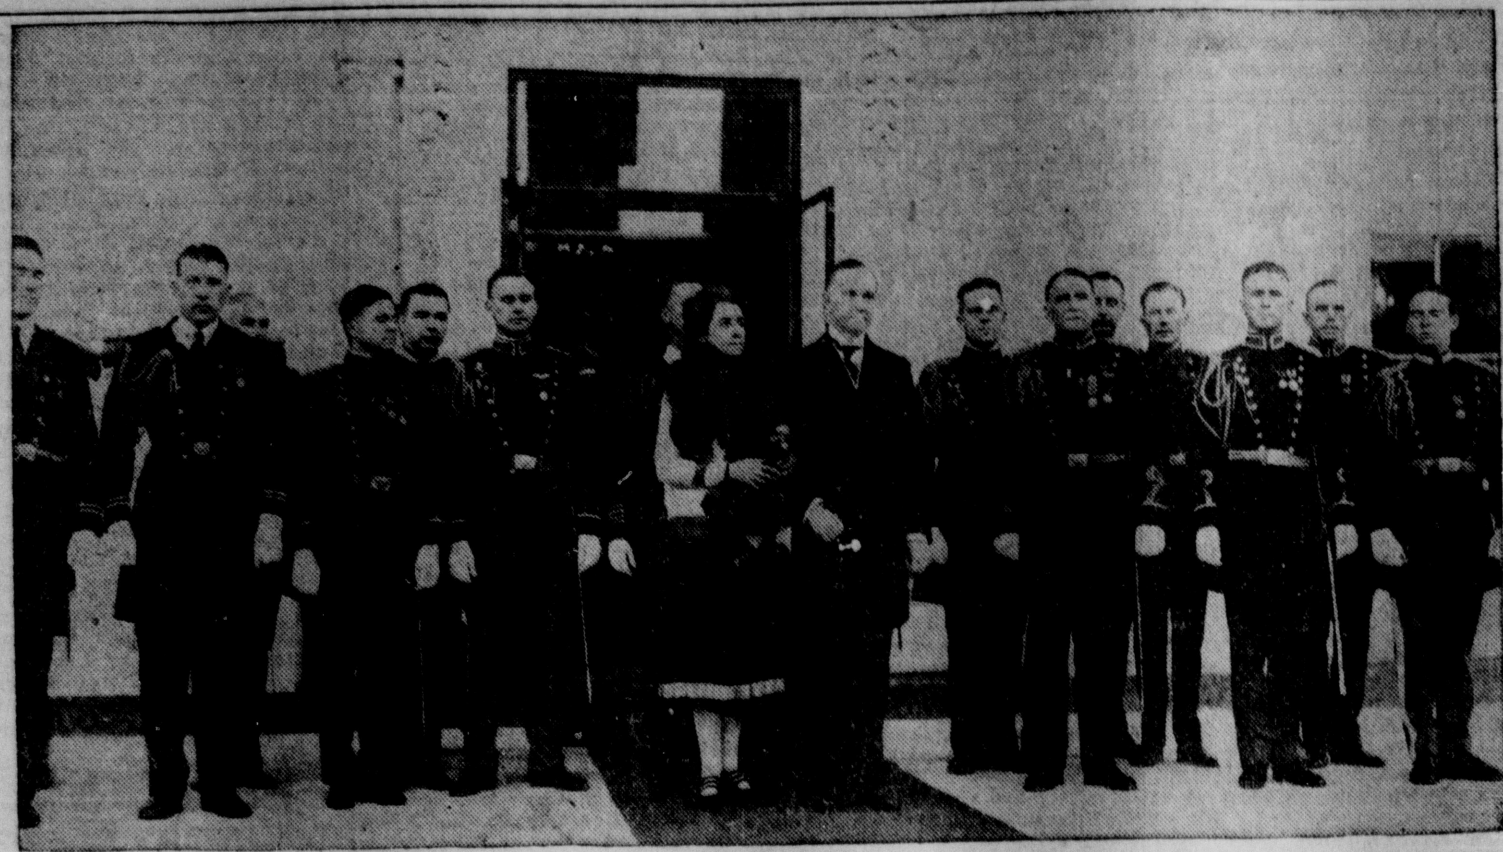

The Players' association will welcome these newcomers to membership and give them opportunity for self-expression in any chosen line of drama, whether it be in stage work, play-reading, scenery building, costuming, or any branch whatever of the various ramifications of Community Play association membership.

COOLIDGE, AS PRESIDENT, WITH HIS MILITARY AIDES
President Coolidge, and Mrs. Coolidge, with the president's naval and military aides, on the steps of the White House after a New Year's reception.

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE PRESIDENT

By Calvin Coolidge
Article 2.

FOREIGN APPROACHES TO PRESIDENT ARE MADE THROUGH STATE DEPARTMENT.

The Secretary of State is the agency through which the President exercises his constitutional authority to deal with foreign relations. As this subject is a matter of constant interchange, he makes no annual reports to the President on the whole conduct of his departments, which he transmits to the Congress. All the intercourse with foreign governments is carried on through the Secretary of State, and a national of a foreign country could not be received by the President unless the accredited diplomatic representative of his government made an appointment for him through the State Department.

All foreign approaches to the President are through this Department. When an Ambassador or Minister is to present his credentials, the Under-Secretary of State brings him to the White House and escorts him to the Green Room. After the President has taken his position, standing in the Blue Room accompanied by his aides, the diplomat is then brought before him. He presents his letters with a short formal statement, in which the President responds in kind, when the mutual expressions of friendly interests and good will have been exchanged, the accompanying staff of the diplomat is brought in for presentation, after which he retires. Except when foreign officials are presented for an audience in this way, the etiquette of the White House requires that those who are present should remain until the President and the Mistress of the White House retire from the room.

Social Functions
A competent man is assigned from the State Department to have the management of the White House official social functions. He has under him a considerable staff located in one of the basement rooms, known as the Social Bureau. They keep a careful list of all those who leave cards and of the officials who should be invited to receptions, which is constantly revised to meet changing conditions. While the President has supervision over all these functions, the most effective way to deal with them is to provide a capable Mistress of the White House. I have often been complimented on the choice which I made nearly 25 years ago. These functions were so much in the hands of Mrs. Coolidge that oftentimes I did not know what guests were to be present until I met them in the Blue Room just before going in to dinner.

These social functions are almost as much a part of the life of official Washington as a session of the Congress or a term of the Supreme Court. The season opens with the Cabinet dinner. Following this come the Diplomatic reception, the Diplomatic dinner, then the Judicial reception, the Supreme Court dinner, then the Congressional reception, and the Speaker's dinner, with the last reception of the year tendered to the Army and Navy. About 50 guests assemble at the dinner, except that given to the diplomats, when the presence of the ambassadors or Ministers of each country represented in Washington, together with their wives, brings the number up to about ninety. The Marine band is in attendance on all these occasions. Following the dinners a short musical recital by famous artists is given in the East Room to which many additional guests are invited.

Reception Colorful
A reception is a particularly colorful event. About 3500 invitations are issued. When the guests are assembled, the President and his wife, preceded by his aides and followed by the Cabinet and his Secretary and their wives, go down the main staircase, pausing for a moment to receive the military salute of the band, and then pass to the Blue Room, where the receptions are always held. When the foreign diplomats are present in their official dress, the scene is very brilliant. After all the presentations have been made, the President and his retinue return to the second floor. Immediately after this there is dancing in the East Room to furnish entertainment while the long line of cars comes up to take the guests home.

Whenever the prominent officials of foreign governments visit Washington, it is customary to receive them at a luncheon or dinner at the White House. When the Prince of Wales was here in 1924, we were in mourning, because of the loss of our son, so that he lunched with us informally without any other invited guests. When the Queen of Rou-mania came to Washington, she was entertained at dinner. There have also been Princes of the reigning houses of Japan and of Sweden, the Premier of France, the Governor-General of Canada, the Presidents of the Irish Free State, of Cuba, and of Mexico, who have been received and entertained in some manner. Whenever an official gathering of foreigners like the Pan-American Conference, convenes in Washington, the President and the Mistress of the White House tender them a reception and a dinner.

Teas and Musicals
Besides these formal social gatherings there were various afternoon teas and musicals, which I sometimes neglected, and usually one or two garden parties held in the south grounds, one of which was for the disabled veterans who were patients in Washington hospitals. These were accompanied with band music and light refreshments, which always seemed to be appreciated by the veterans.

My personal social functions consisted of the White House breakfasts, which were attended by 15 to 25 members of the House and Senate and others, who gathered around my table at 8 o'clock in the morning to partake of a meal which ended with wheat cakes and Vermont maple syrup. During the last session of the Congress I invited all the members of the Senate, all the chairmen and ranking Democratic members of the committees of the House, and finally had breakfast with the officers of both houses of the Congress. Although we did not undertake to discuss matters of public business at these

SANTA ANA TO CO-OPERATE IN SAFETY DRIVE

Assuring the co-operation of the city of Santa Ana in the statewide campaign for the prevention of traffic accidents, Mayor Frank Purinton today announced the receipt of a letter from Gov. C. C. Young asking that the city back the safety program of the California committee on public safety.

"We are heartily in accord with the campaign and will do everything in our power to assist in cutting down the losses resulting from motor accidents," the mayor asserted. "The police department and motor squad have been advised of the campaign and instructed to co-operate to the fullest extent. Santa Ana will be right in front when it comes to measures of public welfare of this nature."

The letter received by Mayor Purinton was one of 65 sent to mayors of California cities, asking for their co-operation in halting the state's traffic toll of an average of five persons killed and 84 injured each day during the first five months of 1929. The governor is seeking co-operation of the California committee on public safety in a state-wide campaign, in conjunction with the new California highway patrol, to conserve life and limb on the streets and highways of the state.

The campaign to minimize the terrible toll of death and injury will embrace both education and enforcement. The committee will seek to familiarize California motorists with the provisions of the motor vehicle act and safe driving practices through education. Simultaneously the state highway patrol will seek to eliminate from the highways of the state the reckless and criminally careless, the drunken and grossly incompetent motor vehicles operator.

The campaign officially opens this month and will continue with a 30-day educational campaign which will be followed by 11 months of co-operative education and enforcement, stressing violations causing seasonal increase in traffic accidents.

Governor Young in an official statement said:

"As governor of this state, I earnestly appeal to all citizens to co-operate with this committee on public safety in the splendid campaign of education which it is undertaking. I also urge that they stand back of our new highway patrol, as well as all other state and local authorities, in efforts which are being made to bring about a safer and safer use of California highways."

CONTRARY CAKE
When a cake sticks to the pan, dip the bottom and sides of the pan in hot water and the cake will be loosened.

ANAHEIM CHAMBER BANQUET OCT. 10

ANAHEIM, Sept. 13.—The date for the annual chamber of commerce banquet was set at a meeting of directors yesterday for October 10.

The meeting will be held at the Elks clubhouse. C. A. Gummere, well known speaker of Los Angeles, has been asked to talk, according to George W. Reid, secretary of the local chamber. Gummere was a member of the staff of the University of Southern California at one time and is now connected with an automobile concern in Los Angeles.

A committee to make arrangements for the affair will be appointed by N. White, president of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce.

NO DATE SET FOR SETTING OF WALNUT PRICES

That question of paramount importance to walnut growers of Orange county, that of what price they will receive for the 1929 crop, will remain unsettled until sometime in October, according to John Kennedy, assistant sales manager of the California Walnut Growers' association, with headquarters in Los Angeles.

According to Kennedy, the date of setting the price depends entirely upon the maturing of the crop and present indications are that this process will be a little later than last year, when the first week in October saw the meeting of the board of directors of the Walnut association and the consequent setting of the price.

"We may find weather conditions hastening the maturing process so that the date will be a little earlier than now anticipated," today stated Kennedy. "But we are certain that it will not be before the first week in October. When members of the board of directors are assembled, the managers of the various walnut houses of the Southland will thus be called together and among these will be Charles Heinrichs, of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' association, and C. C. Collins, of the C. C. Collins Packing house, who will make public the date selected."

FOR "FLAT FEET"
Housewives, hospital nurses, shop clerks and others menaced by "flat feet" should practice rising on the ball of the foot and sinking back on the heels slowly, several times a day, about a dozen times in succession.

100 PRIZES TO BE AWARDED AT DAHLIA EVENT

A magnificent display of dahlias is planned at the seventh annual Orange County Dahlias show in the Buena Park Masonic temple, September 20 and 21.

Growers of all Southern California are eligible to enter exhibits. There is no entry fee and no limit to the number of entries from one person.

Over 100 prizes and ribbons are being offered at this year's show for the best varieties, colors and sizes of dahlias, as well as the most artistic blending of colors, best general display and best display of any kind of cut flowers arranged and exhibited by grammar school children.

Prizes for all first awards are offered by the Orange County Nurserymen's association. Silver cups and trophies are offered for best exhibit in one receptacle entered by a garden club or garden section of a woman's club; best of 13 blooms entered in the name of the town where grown and selected from the garden of any person, horticultural or other organization of the community from which it is entered; and the grand sweepstakes prize.

The Buena Park Kiwanis club and American Legion post are planning programs for each afternoon and evening of the show, and ample parking space will be provided for those with automobiles.

REV. OWINGS PLANS STUDENTS' SERVICE

A special program will be held Sunday night in the First Baptist church of this city, according to the Rev. Harry Evan Owings, pastor. It is to be in the nature of an "Educational Night" and will carry out its purpose to give recognition to college students who are going away to school and to those who will attend the Santa Ana institution. Students of the high school and junior high schools will be honored at the service.

Music for the church quartet, which is composed of Mrs. Charles Nalle, Miss Laura Joiner, Maurice Waugh and Clifford Johnston.

The sermon was announced by the pastor this morning as "Get The Best Education." The Rev. Mr. Owings, who came to the Santa Ana pastorate from Granville, O., the seat of Denison university, is well qualified to discuss educational themes with students.

Santa Ana Women Leave Today for P. E. O. Convention

When the supreme convention of P. E. O. opens in Chicago on Tuesday, September 17, for its three day session, Santa Ana will be represented by Mrs. J. E. Gowen, president of Chapter AB, and Mrs. Frank H. Paterson, president of Chapter DI, who left today for the eastern city.

Following their participation in the convention program which will be held in the Stevens hotel, noted as the largest and one of the finest in the world, they will remain in east for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Gowen will return home after a two weeks' visit there.

A general interest in plans of Mrs. Gowen and Mrs. Paterson has been manifested by their friends and in the past two weeks a number of charming affairs have been given in their honor.

Yesterday afternoon DI members gathered at the attractive home of Mrs. W. H. Harrison, 1408 Bush street, where they enjoyed a tea given for Mrs. Paterson. Hostesses at the pleasant affair were Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. John Tressmann, Mrs. F. E. Coulter and Miss Lulu Minter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dana, Mrs. Paterson's sister, and Mrs. Nat Neff presided at the tea table which was centered with an unusually lovely bouquet of zinnias. Assisting in other hostess duties were Mrs. Clarence Gustlin, Mrs. Warren Brakeman and Mrs. Elmer Heldt.

Besides a number of personal gifts presented the honoree, the club as a whole gave her a handsome leather portfolio.

Members of Chapter AB met at the L. L. Whitson home last night and proceeded to the Gowen home where they bade farewell to their president. The party was planned by Mrs. Grace Zaiser, vice president of the chapter, Mrs. Emrys D. White and Mrs. E. H. Rowland.

A beautiful gift was presented Mrs. Gowen by chapter members.

Since Mrs. Gowen's return from Forest Home where she and Mr. Gowen spent the summer months she has been entertained at a succession of colorful parties. One of the most original of these was an "Admission Day" dinner presented by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barr Burns in their lovely home at 916 Spurgeon street. Clever little brown bears served as place cards, and the state motif was apparent in all table decorations and dinner appointments, even to the ices which were frozen in bear form.

Dr. and Mrs. James E. Paul also made Mr. and Mrs. Gowen their honor guests at a beautifully appointed dinner, while other enjoyable hospitalities have been extended in the past week by Mrs. John Pemberton Baumgartner and Mrs. A. M. Gardner.

Each occasion has seemed to add to the assortment of thoughtful little gifts with which friends have deluged the traveler for use on her journey, and Los Angeles friends have added to the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Gowen have spent practically the entire summer in their cabin at Forest Home, which is always the center of a gay but informal social life at that popular summer resort. Mr. Gowen has known an unusual freedom from business since his resignation as manager of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' association, and has been able to enjoy mountain life in what has been characterized as "Santa Ana in the Mountains."

Rose Arbor Is Setting For Smart Luncheon

A delightful luncheon was that today at the Rose Arbor Inn when Miss Nancy Elder, Y. W. C. A. secretary, and Miss Dorothy Cartwright, Girl Reserve secretary, entertained Miss Fern Sumner of the Orange Y. W. C. A. and Miss Edna Munford, new general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of the North Orange district.

The luncheon was held in order that Miss Munford might become better acquainted with the Y. W. C. A. secretaries in the county. Plans for work during 1929 and 1930 were discussed.

Pretty Bridge Party Held In Tustin

A delightful bridge party was held Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Clifford Prunty entertained members of an informal little bridge club in the pretty home in Tustin. When scores were added, it was discovered that Mrs. Clayton Tillotson held high, with Mrs. Ralph Cole low. Each was awarded an attractive prize. Dainty refreshments were served.

Guests present were Mesdames Benny Osterman, George Osterman, Ralph Mitchell, Willis Mitchell, John Kinyon, Ralph Cole, Hugh Osburn, Clayton Tillotson, and the hostess, Mrs. Clifford Prunty.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Second Travel section of Ebell will meet Monday for a 12:30 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. T. A. Winbiger, 207 East Ninth street when hostesses will include Mrs. Winbiger, Mrs. Emma French and Mrs. Mit Phillips. Members will tell of their vacations.

Coming Events

SATURDAY
Orange County Shrine club; annual family picnic supper and dance at Irvine park; sports program with prizes, 3 to 5 o'clock; supper at 5:30 and dancing to follow.

YOU and your Friends

Mary Mowrey of 1415 West Eighth street left last night on the Santa Fe "Hop" for Kansas City, where she will make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. O'Hara left last night on the Santa Fe "Hop" for Detroit, Mich., where they will purchase a new automobile, continuing by motor on a leisurely tour of the eastern states.

Harlan John of Redlands, former student of Santa Ana Junior college, was a recent visitor at the Ernest Crozier Phillips' home. Mr. John, who was prominent in college activities, and supervised the art work in the college presentation of "Macbeth," is now attending Chouinard Art school in Los Angeles.

R. Caldwell of the Barr Lumber company left today on the Union Pacific coast train "Gold Coast Limited" for Grand Island, Nebr., where he will visit relatives and friends.

K. Zakett of 2409 North Broadway park left last night on the Santa Fe "Hop" for Trinidad, Colo., where he was called on account of the sudden death of his brother.

Mrs. L. A. Schlesinger and mother, Mrs. Louis Praeger and daughter, Miss Estelle Schlesinger of 419 South Birch street are visiting relatives in San Francisco.

Wilbur Bullert, Miss Daisy Bullert and Miss Alice Bullert of Los Angeles, formerly of Santa Ana will all leave soon for various points on the globe, according to word received by friends in this city. Miss Daisy Bullert, who has been attending school in Los Angeles, will leave in the near future for Africa, where she will enter missionary work. Her brother, Mr. Bullert, plans to enter the missionary service, while Miss Alice Bullert will leave for Des Moines, Ia., to spend the winter months with her parents in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gilbert and daughter, the Misses Geraldine and Eugenia of 420 South Main street have returned from a motor trip through the northern part of California. Motoring to Bishop, where they were joined by Miss Eugenia Gilbert, who had been spending several weeks visiting relatives, the group continued over the famous Tioga Pass, through the High Sierras to Yosemite National Park and to Monterey. Returning by way of Del Monte, they spent several days at the Del Monte Hotel, and attended the national amateur golf tournament. Miss Eugenia Gilbert will leave Sunday for Pomona college.

Plans Completed for District Meeting

Extensive preparations are being made by Mrs. Joseph S. Thurston, of Laguna Beach, Orange county president of the Federated Women's clubs, for the district board meeting to be held in Laguna Friday, with a luncheon at La Casa del Camino. Members from five counties comprising the fourth district will be present.

Presidents from Riverside, Orange, San Diego, San Bernardino and Imperial counties, Mrs. Marcus Robbins, second district vice president, who will preside, Miss Josephine G. Seaman of La Jolla, and Mrs. H. N. DeNye, past president of the fourth district, are among those who will be present.

The business meeting is to be held in the lobby of the hotel, according to present arrangements. Musical selections will be played by Leon Burford, accompanied by Mrs. Frederick J. Schwankovsky.

Long Beach Woman Is Honoree at Party

Mrs. Claud Corbett of Long Beach was honored recently when Mrs. Edna Anderson entertained for her at her hospitable home at 912 South Van Ness street.

The evening was spent in playing bridge and attractive gifts were awarded Mrs. Lloyd Claire and Mrs. Lyman Boomer. At a late hour a delectable supper was served by the hostess.

Guests included Mrs. Lyman Boomer, Mrs. Albert Dykeman, Mrs. Clayton Thompson, Mrs. Theodore Robbins, Mrs. Lloyd Claire, Mrs. Jack Looney, Mrs. Russell, Hampton, Mrs. Simon Guilford, Miss Leon Percey, Miss Frankie Thompson and Miss Gertrude Sanborn of Balboa, Miss Margaret Bondley, Mrs. Mark Todd and Mrs. Phillip Morse of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Corbett of Long Beach.

Pretty Breakfast Is Followed by Shower

A delightfully appointed breakfast followed by a shower for Mrs. Loughborough was given yesterday morning by Mrs. T. Schmidt at her home, 2301 Orange avenue.

Her guests included Mrs. Richard and Mrs. Kenneth Simpson, Mrs. J. Province, Mrs. P. A. Kiewer, Mrs. F. Messenger, Mrs. Howard McHenry, Mrs. James Sullivan, Mrs. C. Reid, Mrs. Ernest Davies, Mrs. Leonard Musick, Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Borman Cowdrey, Mrs. Leonard White, Mrs. L. Endress, Mrs. Earl Lepper, Mrs. John Britton, Mrs. D. A. Jones, Mrs. W. Green, Mrs. Jack De Groot, Mrs. Floyd Nelson, Mrs. J. Adelmans and Mrs. Will Lindsey.

New Gymnasium Classes Are Organized at Y. W. C. A.

Formation of a new gymnasium and swimming class for women in connection with the Tuesday program each week at the Y. M. C. A. was announced by Miss Nancy Elder, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. who has been working to form a class that will accommodate the business women of the city without conflicting with their leisure hours in the evening.

To this end, the first of these new classes will be arranged to coincide with the average hour at which office or desk work is concluded, and will begin at 5:15 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. R. Russick. A program of floor work, organized games and exercises especially selected to be followed by the swimming class for which the pool will remain open until 8:30 o'clock.

Similar work will be given the second class, beginning at 7:15 o'clock, and it is planned to organize basketball leagues among those who enjoy that strenuous game.

Miss Elder explained that the opening of the schools necessitated a change in the class schedule for Tuesday afternoon. The first class will meet at 3:30 instead of 2:30 o'clock. Grade school girls will meet at 4 o'clock, and junior high school girls at 4:30. There will be no change made in the Tuesday morning schedule, designed for home women.

Each class member must provide her own gymnasium suit of bloomers, middie and shoes, and also a rubber cap for the swimming interval. The Y. W. C. A. bathing suits must be used to comply with sanitary regulations of the city, but members may bring their own towels or rent those of the Y.

Birthday Remembered At Club Meeting

The Flying Needle club met at the home of Miss Verna Bailey, 1041 West Sixth street, yesterday, for an all day meeting with a delicious luncheon at noon. As the occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jessie Sneer she was presented with a birthday cake after which each guest presented her with a dainty handkerchief.

At the conclusion of the afternoon's entertainment Miss Eva Wheeler was presented with a pretty prize.

Those attending were Mrs. Evelyn Kintz, Mrs. Trinity Brown, Mrs. Marie Barnes, Mrs. Jessie Sneer, Mrs. Dora Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Erickson, Mrs. W. Bergendorf and Miss Wheeler.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Missionary Meeting
The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed an unusual program at its meeting held Wednesday afternoon. Under the leadership of the chairman, Mrs. D. A. Bear, the committee invited a group of college folk to give the program, presenting different phases of missionary work.

Miss Lavina Compton led a helpful devotional service, using Matt. 28:19-20 as the subject.

Two vocal numbers, "Hold Thou My Hand" and "The King's Highway," by Howard Youel with Miss Elizabeth Herrington accompanying were enjoyed. Also one by Miss Florine Pollock, "Thou Wilt Keep in Perfect Peace" with her mother, Mrs. H. K. Pollock accompanying.

Miss Mary Griest, a graduate of Occidental college, told why she was influenced to study medicine that she may use her life to help others. Miss Griest stated that the foreign mission field attracts young people because they recognize the great need in heathen lands for the principles of Christianity and their opportunity to show in their own living the doctrine they teach. A large percentage of reinforcements on the mission field comes from the student volunteers.

Miss Elizabeth Herrington, a graduate of Pomona college, read an excellent paper on the subject "Why I Go to Church."

Ralph Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis and a medical student at Stanford university, gave a splendid talk, telling of his early interest in missionary work and of his decision to prepare for the work of a medical missionary because of the opportunity to help remedy the misery and sorrow caused by ignorance regarding the laws of health and sanitation in many foreign lands.

The society was happy to have the pastor, the Rev. O. Scott McFarland, and Mrs. McFarland with them after two months spent in the east.

The Rev. Mr. McFarland closed the program with words of praise for the zeal and faithful work of the church members and the missionary society in influencing these young people to desire to give their life in full time Christian service.

Mrs. Harry Lewis presided. A social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served after the close of the meeting.

Aid Society Meets
The Aid society of St. Peter's Lutheran church met in the social room Wednesday afternoon. "The Queen of Sheba" was the subject of discussion and the business meeting was followed by a social hour during which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Mary Kraft and Mrs. George Krock.

Approaching Marriage Is Occasion for Pretty Party

The approaching marriage of Miss Dorothy Bement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Bement of 1824 West Washington avenue, and Nyl P. Hurd, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hurd of 1520 West Washington avenue, was the incentive for a charmingly appointed party and shower given last night by Miss Martha McPeak, Miss Mary Davis and Miss Gretha Clark at the McPeak home, 216 Orange avenue.

The evening was spent in sewing trousseau articles for the bride-to-be and at its conclusion she was presented with many lovely gifts.

The guests were Miss Dorothy Bement, Mrs. L. O. Bement, Miss Teresa Bement, Mrs. C. B. Hurd, Miss Elsiebel Hurd, Mrs. Pearl Maret, Mrs. S. J. Babcock, Miss Nancy Elder, Miss Dorothy Cartwright, Mrs. R. R. Russick, Miss Grace Anderson, Miss Ruth Breckinridge, Miss Peggy Archibald, Miss Clarine Palmer, Miss Harriet Koshor, Mrs. J. J. Vela, Miss Mildred Paul, Mrs. W. H. McPeak.

District Convention Is Planned By D. of U. V.

At the recent meeting of Sarah A. Rounds Tent No. 10, Daughters of Union Veterans, there was much pleasure manifested over the fact that the silk quilt which the daughters had fashioned during the winter and spring months, had taken second prize at the Orange county fair.

Mrs. Maude Sutton, president, conducted the meeting, which was in K. of P. hall, according to custom, and which was attended by all but three of the officers in addition to a large number of members. Officers were conducted to their places with a pleasing ceremony led by the guide, Mrs. Pearl Nelson.

In planning for the meeting of the Southern California federation, D. of U. V. to be held in this city on September 24, the president, Mrs. Sutton, named Mrs. Helen McArthur as chairman of a committee to work with the Aid society of the First Christian church, in planning luncheon for the delegates and visitors. All Daughters will be expected to share in entertaining the guests, and the tent will have charge of the day's program.

During the business interval of the latest meeting, 29 calls and as many bouquets were reported as brightening the days of ill and shut-in members and veterans. Thirty dollars had been expended for patriotic work also. Announcement was made of a social after-noon on Friday, September 20, with Mrs. Kitty Smith as hostess, and Mrs. Harriette Mitchell, chairman. Another anticipated event of the future, is the covered-dish supper with Sons of Veterans, to be held in K. of P. hall on the evening of September 24, with the Daughters to have charge of the program to follow.

Yesterday afternoon, the Daughters gave a short program of music and readings, for the entertainment of comrades of the G.A.R., and completed their friendly hospitality by serving coffee and pie.

Farewell Party Is Enjoyable Event

Mrs. Isabel McFadyen who has made her home in this county for the past 10 years and who is to leave soon for her old home in Scotland was the guest of honor last night at a delightful party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips at their home, 1469 Cypress avenue.

Following a number of merry games guests enjoyed a delicious supper prepared and served by their hostess.

Those enjoying the affair with Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. McFadyen were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Planchon, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Harvey, William Hunter, Mrs. Elsie Riddell, Miss Margaret Riddell, John Riddell, Miss Nan Blair, Miss Ruby Blair, John Hanson, Harold Swincer, Miss Mary Hanson and George Grant.

Farewell Dinner Is Pleasant Affair

Robert Northcross Jr. was host last night at a dinner party given at the home of his mother, Mrs. Robert Northcross, 1318 Spurgeon street, in honor of Terry Stephenson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry E. Stephenson of 1522 North Broadway, who is to leave Tuesday for the University of Texas at Austin, Tex.

Guests were seated at small tables centered with pretty bouquets of autumn flowers and places were marked for Robert Northcross Jr., Terry Stephenson Jr., Fred Humiston, Harvey Bear, Miss Betty Maloney, Miss Florence Brownridge, Miss Louise Maloney, and Miss Elizabeth Stewart of Alhambra.

Following a happy evening of games, gifts were awarded Miss Betty Maloney, Terry Stephenson and Fred Humiston.

Hoisington Will Be Honored at Three Social Affairs

Three delightful affairs have been planned for the coming week-end as a compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Hoisington Jr. of Long Beach. Mrs. Hoisington, a bride of a short time, was formerly Miss Virginia Slabaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh of this city.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Hoisington Jr. will be guests of honor at a dinner dance to be given at the Pacific Coast club at Long Beach by Miss Adeline Thompson of Stanton.

Tomorrow afternoon a bridge luncheon will be held at a tea room in Los Angeles for the charming bride by Mrs. Maurice Mathris and Miss Betty Donohue. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ron Stevens of San Marino will entertain for them at dinner at their home. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Hoisington Jr. were Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters.

Christian Endeavor Alumni Enjoy Dinner

Fifty members of the Christian Endeavor alumni of the First Baptist church were entertained last night at a delicious dinner followed by a business meeting and program at the attractive ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Platt, Paulmarino.

Tables were arranged beneath a graceful pepper tree and the menu included vegetables and turkey that had been raised on the Platt ranch.

Officers for the coming year were elected and Warren Brakeman was named president, P. H. Norton, vice president; Mrs. A. M. Robinson, secretary; Miss Edith Naskyns, J. P. Williams and George Ash, advisory committee.

The evening's program included travel talks by Mrs. A. M. Robinson, Miss Grace Roberts, P. H. Norton, Walter Ferris and the Rev. Harry Evan Owings.

The next meeting of the group will take place at the Pasadena home of Mr. and Mrs. Price, well known artists.

Proceeds from the dinner will be used to help send three native children in India to school.

White Shrine Circle Takes Up Autumn Activities

One of the many enjoyable social meetings of the White Shrine circle members of Damascus Shrine No. 13, was held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Judson Sutherland in Costa Mesa, with Mrs. John Shaw as co-hostess with Mrs. Sutherland.

Baskets of zinnias in rich autumnal hues, graced the rooms where the members devoted a brief interval to business discussions so necessary after a lapse of all circle activities for two months. Last they gave their attention to bridge, in which attractive prizes were awarded Mrs. Maude Sutherland and Mrs. C. M. Mosher, scoring first and second, respectively.

At the tea hour, the hostesses asked their guests to find places around one large table, charming in its arrangement of flowers in soft pastel tones, and a fitting accompaniment to the appetizing dainties served.

Those present in addition to Mrs. Sutherland and Mrs. Shaw, were Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. George Shippe, Mrs. C. M. Mosher, Mrs. David Wolfson, Mrs. Elton Roehm, Mrs. Maude Sutherland, Mrs. L. R. Crawford, Mrs. Elsie Bohling, Miss Henrietta Bohling, Mrs. C. H. Ryan, Mrs. R. A. Evans, Mrs. James Vinson, Mrs. W. G. Lewis, Mrs. Maude Sutton, Mrs. Clara Cooke and Mrs. Hyde.

G. R. Presidents to Meet Tomorrow

Girl Reserve presidents of the high school department will meet tomorrow afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. rooms with Miss Dorothy Cartwright, Girl Reserve secretary, to outline the work for the coming year.

Girls in the group include Miss

Mildred Daley, Miss Doris Bolles, Miss Wilda Rohrer and Miss Mae Hasenjaeger.

Early next week Miss Cartwright will hold a cabinet training council in preparation for the coming year, she stated.

The WOMAN'S DAY

By ALLENE SUMNER

All this talk about the smaller waistline, and the feminine figure, made me wonder just what we are coming to this fall, so I sought an authority on the subject—Marjorie Dork, who maintains a fashionable slenderizing studio in New York, and has helped many a woman to pare off pounds and look younger than her years.

"Tell me the truth, no matter how it hurts," I begged. "Are we going to go back to corsets?"

"A large number of women are," was her reply. "Because the new styles all feature the natural waistline—which on many women is a roll of flesh, particularly on those who have secured the stylish straightline figure."

"They reduce every part of themselves, but their waists, and they could get away with flesh there because with a straightline dress it did not show."

"Now they will either have to finish the job, and reduce the waistline, or they will have to hold in that extra fold of flesh by stays—there is no other way. The sensible woman will reduce and the lazy woman will corset herself."

18-inch waistline as an immediate peril—or the 21.

"I believe the 24-inch waistline will be the desirable one this season," she said. "And with that smaller waistline will come the higher bust. The figure will change considerably to be in harmony with the 1929 silhouette."

Miss Dork has never recommended drastic reductions. She has always advocated daily exercise, a sane diet, and a consistent loss in weight over a long period rather than quick results gained by limited diets.

Almost 20 years of working with women who want to improve their figures have left her with no illusions as to woman's frailty—of purpose.

"Women want everything done for them—they think if they have money they should be able to buy slim waists and beauty as well as ermine and diamonds."

"For instance, here in my gymnasium, I have expensive electrical equipment. I have a capable instructor who is ready to put every woman through the course of exercises that is best for her health and her figure. But do women actually want to work off their flesh, by exercising and by wearing down the fat tissues?"

"No, they want to lie comfortably on a slab and have a woman massage them, or roll them with rollers—all of which is very good for the health and the figure, but effective only when combined with actual physical exertion and sane dieting."

Is Old-Fashioned Girl Out?

SOMETIMES I THINK "YES,"
BUT SOMETIMES I THINK "NO"

By Velva G. Darling

These are hard times for the girl who wants to be a man's inspiration—the girl who believes that true womanhood means being some man's pet and parlor ornament or even doing his general housework. The old-fashioned girl is finding it hard pickings today to get any attention from her husband when he comes home at night after his really interesting day of business—in the company of a wide-awake, good-looking girl who knows as much about his business as he does, and who works shoulder to shoulder with him. The "you great big wonderful man" attitude used to work beautifully. Men ate it up—and the girl who could look and act the most naive, and who knew nothing about the world, and did even less, was the one who had the men hanging around her like bees around a hive. But today she is the cream in no man's coffee. She is merely old-fashioned and dumb and stupid. She isn't the kind of a girl that men forget—she's the kind they don't even BEGIN to remember—the old-fashioned girl.

But take the other side of the question—sometimes I think that all that the word "old-fashioned" stands for is not only coming in again, but is about to establish itself MORE FIRMLY than ever before! Modesty, reticence, quietness, aloofness and femininity are undoubtedly more prevalent in the girls of the present generation than boyishness. We are weary to death of the big strong athletic girl who can swear as prodigiously as she can smoke—which is plenty—the girl who has gone everywhere and seen everything and done absolutely everything—you can't tell HER nothin'! We long now for the girl who isn't mad to succeed in some "career" or other, who doesn't WANT to earn more money than her husband, who is content to be his wife and represent the charm, hospitality, and calm dignity every man longs to have his home stand for.

The noise of cymbals and drums is startling and interesting for a while. The flapper led the world around by the nose—for a time. But it was really quite an awful strain. And it was becoming just a bit ridiculous when it finally faded out. The day of the old-fashioned girl is here—I sometimes think. And yet, if you happen to be one of those old-fashioned clinging-vine wives, keep a watchful eye on your husband! After a day in business with a quick-witted, perfectly groomed, interesting, intelligent girl working with him, he is liable to find YOUR company awfully flat and insipid. The intelligent wife is the one who REFUSES to be old-fashioned. She goes out into the business world herself. She knows that brains, like bodies, never wear out. They rust out. And rusting, alas, is the best thing the stupid "old-fashioned" girl does!

Why is it that we can eat and enjoy berries off the bush, yet when served at table we feel we must drench them with sugar and cream?

It is just this unnecessary "sugar and cream" that brings people to the pass where diets are necessary.

Learn to eat foods for their own flavor, and not for the "trimmings." And now for another moment of the torso exercise:

Figure at attention; repeat the three movements already given, 10 times each: Exercise 4: body erect, feet slightly apart to balance body, arms akimbo, hands on hips firmly. Breathing deep and slowly, rotate the body on the waist-line axis, forward, around to left, from left as far back as possible, from back around to the right, and so on, until 10 rotations have been accomplished.

DIET FOR DAY V

Breakfast
1/2 glass of orange juice, 2 slices of zwieback with 1/2 pat of butter, 1/2 cup of scalded skim-milk for coffee. No sugar.

Lunch

Minced clams in milk (1 cup whole milk with 2 tablespoons minced clams and juice). Lettuce and apple salad with mineral oil French dressing.

Dinner

Cheese soufflé (1/4 of the recipe is diet portion) 10 asparagus tips, seasoned with lemon juice, 4 tablespoons cauliflower with 1 tablespoon thin cream for dressing; 1 medium dish plain whipped jello, garnished with slice of pineapple. Black coffee or clear tea.

Bedtime

1/2 glass of hot skim-milk. Calories total for all food eaten—1230.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Cheese Soufflé
1/2 pound diced cheese
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon paprika
pinch of cayenne
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup skim-milk
3 eggs—separate
Soufflés are best when the milk is made into a cream sauce before adding the eggs; the thickened base makes a smoother

Double Bill At Walker Theater To Close Today

Because the two features, "Chasing Through Europe" and "Light Fingers," being shown at the Fox-Walker theater for the last times today, are so different, the program is an unusually interesting one. One picture is a rollicking comedy, while the other is a 'heavy' crook picture.

"Light Fingers" has to do with thieves, jewels, police and daring chases and escapades, while "Chasing Through Europe" is a comedy based on a young American's experiences when he lands in Europe with a movie camera on his back.

"Chasing Through Europe" is silent and "Light Fingers" is an all-talking Columbia production.

Aside from the feature, a Fox-Movietone newsreel is on the program.

LON CHANEY STAR OF BROADWAY FILM

Lon Chaney—railroad engineer. The famous star, behind the throttle of a plunging iron monster, plays one of his greatest roles in "Thunder," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's railroad epic, which opened today in the Fox-Broadway theater, to run through Sunday.

As "Gumpy" Anderson, veteran of the line, Chaney figures in a vivid adventure on the rails in an original play by Byron Morgan, directed by William Nigh.

Phyllis Haver has the feminine lead in the play, it being her last appearance in pictures. "Thunder" was completed just prior to her marriage and retirement from the screen, James Murray has the juvenile lead and George Duryea, Frances Morris and Wally Albright Jr. have important roles.

Chaney drove an engine on the Chicago-Northwestern line for more than 600 miles in the filming of the picture. Scenes of the Mississippi floods form a vivid and spectacular background.

An all talking comedy, "Dad's Day," a Pathe sound review, a Fox Movietone newsreel and an oddity, "Lacquer and Pearls," also are on the program.

EDUCATION IS DISCUSSED IN ROTARY SPEECH

ORANGE, Sept. 13.—"Rotarian Education" was the subject of a talk given by Dr. W. F. Trougher, of Los Angeles, at a meeting of the Rotary club here yesterday. The Rotarians' interest in welfare work of the community was related and welfare work done by the Los Angeles Rotary club was outlined.

Dr. Trougher spoke of the clinic which had been organized in Los Angeles during the World war and which had been continued up to the present time. In the clinic home making was taught foreigners, he said.

A craft talk, part of a series, was given by Sherman Gillogly, local undertaker.

Harry Huff was the chairman of the day.

BEACH RESIDENTS ON HUNTING TRIPS

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 13.—William Ponting has returned from a trip to the Santa Cruz mountains and reports that he noticed dozens of hunters bringing in deer. The very dry weather, together with the numerous forest fires forced the game in around Clear Lake and made the hunting unusually good.

Art Windinger, Mike Burris and Floyd Weeks left last night for a deer hunt in the Frazier mountains.

Chief of Police Hodgkinson, Officer S. F. Naylor and Tom Buche and their wives leave Sunday night for a camping trip in Nevada county. They expect to camp the entire time. Hunting and fishing will be enjoyed for 10 days or two weeks.

HURT IN CRASH

ANAHEIM, Sept. 13.—James Gillingham, of 605 North Cleveland street, was cut about the hands and arms, according to a report at the police station yesterday, when the motorcycle he was riding collided with a truck driven by C. Wiggins at Orange and Center streets.

State Park Board Architect Visits Sites At Newport

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 13.—Tom Workman, of Los Angeles, architect connected with the state park board, were here Wednesday. They stated that they had been up and down the coast inspecting proposed state park sites.

They were especially interested in a strip of beach, about 7000 feet in length, between the Santa Ana river and Huntington Beach.

JUDGE BULLOCK CITES DUTIES IN CLUB TALK

ANAHEIM, Sept. 13.—More than 200 women met with members of the Anaheim Business and Professional Women's club at the Elks club last night to hear a talk given by Judge Georgia Bullock, of Los Angeles, at the regular dinner meeting of the club.

Her own experiences in the municipal court of Los Angeles were related by the speaker, who gave a number of examples of work that is being done on behalf of women and children who come in contact with the courts.

The ideals of women who take up the study of law were outlined by the speaker, who described the co-operation received by women lawyers from men in the profession.

Judge Bullock was introduced by Miss Ruth Taunton, chairman of the program committee for the year. Mrs. Kate McCulloch, president of the club, presided. Mrs. Charles Harbeson, president of the Anaheim Elks club, was a guest.

The musical program was presented by Ollie Mae Matthews, violinist; Frank Darvas, pianist, and Ellis Rhodes, tenor. Rhodes sang a composition of Louis Danz, Anaheim composer, "O' Little Lamb."

A guest from Los Angeles was Arthur W. Parsons, artist, who painted the murals in the children's department at the Anaheim public library.

NEW HIGHWAY FOR BREA DISCUSSED

BREA, Sept. 13.—Need of another main artery out of Brea to the north proved an absorbing topic of the weekly luncheon of the chamber of commerce in Olson's cafe yesterday.

President H. M. Massey instructed the secretary to communicate at once with officials of the Pacific Electric company over whose lines the proposed outlet would cross, with a view of having representatives of the company meet with the chamber of commerce.

It has been pointed out that Pomona avenue is the only outlet from the city to the north and that in case this street was closed traffic would necessarily be diverted several miles in order to reach the Brea Canyon road. In case a crossing over the Pacific Electric lines is made it is likely that it will be made on North Madrona street.

L. A. Hogue, president of the Lions club, announced a meeting of the county council in the high school auditorium Monday night at which time Congressman Phil Swing is to be the guest of honor and speaker of the evening.

ORANGE RESIDENTS AT DAHLIA EVENT

ORANGE, Sept. 13.—Mrs. J. P. the Dahlia show in Los Angeles Boring and son, Ronald, attended yesterday.

Boring, who is an expert gardener, has developed 40 new varieties of the dahlia. One of these is a beautiful buff blossom of the ball type, which he has named the "Anaheim." Two others are named the "Fullerton" and the "Garden Grove." Orange had already been chosen as the name of a dahlia.

ENGINEER FOR PARK BOARD TO SPEAK AT H. B.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 13.—Harry Whitcomb Shepherd, landscape engineer for the state park commission, will be the principal speaker at a dollar dinner to be held at the Golden Bear cafe in this city Tuesday at 6:30 p. m.

Shepherd will talk on the opportunity to secure a state park for the Orange county coast. The county or city has to match the state money, dollar for dollar, under the provisions of the act by which $10,000,000 was voted for state park purposes.

It is believed that Huntington Beach, rich in mineral taxes, will match Orange county dollar for dollar to secure a state park in the swamp lands and along the lagoons between this city and Newport Beach. It is proposed to spend a million dollars on the coast park and possibly more.

PLAN BREA-OLINDA CLUB AT COLLEGE

BREA, Sept. 13.—Formation of a "B-O" club at Fullerton Junior college looked today as a result of a reunion on the Fullerton campus of many Brea-Olinda high school graduates.

Among those enrolling from the Brea-Olinda district are Doris Massey, Mildred Murray, Lois ("Toots") Reed, Howard Mangin, Jerry Woodward, Frank Schweitzer, Ella Armstrong, Frances Greninger, Mildred Chansler, Lucille Coggeshall, Jessie Sachs, Laura Merrifield, Viola Baker, Gwen Shaffer and Nadine Mason.

All of them are Brea-Olinda graduates except Nadine Mason, who graduated from high school at Spokane, before she became Mrs. Frank Mason.

Hold Funeral Of Mrs. Sarah A. Stall On Saturday

ANAHEIM, Sept. 13.—Funeral services will be held at the Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral chapel, Saturday, at 2 p. m., for Mrs. Sarah Ann Stall, 83, a resident of California for the past 27 years, and of this city for the past 19 years, who passed away yesterday at the ranch home of the family on East Santa Ana street.

Services will be conducted by the Rev. C. C. Root of the First Christian church, of which she was a member. Interment will be made in the Compton cemetery.

Mrs. Stall was born in Ohio and lived in Benicia, Calif., before coming to California.

Surviving her seven sons, Robert W. of Compton; David J. of Baker, Ore.; Irwin C. of Coldwater, Mich.; C. C. of Hynes; J. D. of Whittier; D. D. of Anaheim, and A. A. of Los Angeles; two daughters, Mrs. Emma L. Ritchie of Benicia, Calif., and Mrs. Lulu E. Crook of Sierra Madre, and one brother, Edward Lazenby, of Sacramento.

42 Students In El Toro School

EL TORO, Sept. 13.—The El Toro school has 42 pupils enrolled. Mrs. Helen Flintham is the new principal and Mrs. Jo Keirsey is in charge of the primary room. The school building is in good condition having undergone a number of repairs during the summer.

All the desks have been refinished and a number of new ones added. Cupboards for supplies have been built in the cloak rooms and a dresser and electric plate installed for the teachers. Other improvements are being planned by the trustees.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 13.—F. Terkhorn, police lieutenant of Los Angeles, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Clyde Knisley, on Joliet street at Geneva.

HANDSOME TUSTIN CHURCH IS COMPLETED

First services in the new First Presbyterian church of Tustin will be held Sunday. The inset is of the Rev. S. F. Shiffer, pastor of the church.

Los Angeles, Tustin and Fullerton Ministers to Aid In Service

TUSTIN, Sept. 13.—For the first time in five years, all classes of the First Presbyterian Sunday school of Tustin will meet under one roof, when members will meet for the first time in the beautiful Sunday school rooms of the newly completed edifice. The opening services will be held in the main auditorium at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Greetings will be extended by the Rev. Graham Hunter, of Fullerton, from the Los Angeles Presbytery, and by the Rev. J. W. Carson, pastor of the First Methodist church, of Tustin, from the local churches. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Los Angeles, and special music will be furnished by the church choir.

The union evening services of the local churches will be held in the main auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. S. F. Shiffer, pastor of the church.

The new building contains 20 rooms, exclusive of the main auditorium. The auditorium with its gallery seats 370. Above the gallery is a beautiful rose window of stained glass, while the room is also lighted from the sides by stained glass windows. The altar contains a John Knox pulpit for the pastor, and a large choir loft. At night the room is lighted by beautiful chandeliers.

The basement contains a social hall, with a stage at one end, equipped with footlights, and a dressing room on either end. The hall will accommodate 300 persons. Also in the basement is a large kitchen, containing an electric stove, tile sinks, a steam table and work tables.

On the other floors and assembly rooms for the various Sunday school departments, with class rooms adjoining. Each assembly room is carpeted in thick gray carpet, and contains a blackboard and cellotex board. The tower contains

GEOLOGISTS OF TWO COMPANIES MAKE SURVEYS

COSTA MESA, Sept. 13.—Interest of oil men of this district was focused on two wildcat wells in Costa Mesa today, the projects of the Oil Well Engineering company and the Mesa Petroleum company.

The first well located at Seventeenth and Placencia streets, was cemented off last week and yesterday the crew started drilling out the cement. Officials of the company believe that if they can secure a water shut-off they will be able to bring in a good producer.

The Mesa Petroleum company has resumed operations after a shut down. The well is reported down 5000 feet. The project is two blocks north of the Oil Well Engineering well.

The General Petroleum company had geologists making surveys in the district yesterday. They surveyed over 11,000 feet. Lines were placed on George Hall's five acres on Wilson street, W. H. Evans' five acres on Victoria, Hope's acreage, then north of Wilson street and west of Fairview, across Dr. C. G. Huston's five acres, Darby's and some of Meyer's acreage.

The Western Gulf company also had geologists surveying and making tests yesterday of the most part west of Fairview and north of Wilson street.

1721 Students In Fullerton Grade School This Term

FULLERTON, Sept. 13.—The enrollment in the Fullerton elementary schools this year is 1721, as compared with 1401 at this date last year, it was announced today by R. E. Green, superintendent of schools. This is an increase of 120 pupils over the number of last year and it is expected that as the season progresses, the number will increase. The Ford Avenue school showed the largest gain with an increase of 99 pupils, and all the rooms on the new wing of the building are being used. The balance of the increase was divided up among the rest of the schools with two showing a decrease over last year.

Cudahy's Puritan 100% Leaf Lard The Perfect Shortening

Cudahy's Puritan Lard is famous as "The Perfect Shortening" because it assures better baking and cooking.

To be perfect a shortening must have superior mixing and blending qualities. You have these in Puritan Lard—due to its fine grained texture. Puritan makes cakes and pastry that are light, fluffy and delicious; pie crust that is tender, crisp and flaky; the kind which you are proud and delighted to serve.

Puritan Lard is also unequalled for deep frying. The golden brown seal which it quickly forms around the food retains the original flavor; this prevents greasy, soggy food.

Puritan is 100% pure leaf lard, open kettle rendered, free from moisture and chilled in the package. Because of these finer qualities less oil is required.

Puritan Lard does not smoke at cooking temperature. As it does not absorb food flavors, it may be used again and again.

You'll be delighted with Puritan—At your dealers.

The butler announced them and retired, but Brent noticed that an attendant whom he thought to be a valet or a nurse remained.

"Good morning, Mr. Cunningham," he said, advancing and bowing before the old man. He refrained from extending his hand; a point that did not escape Mr. Cunningham's notice.

Mr. Cunningham nodded and his own hands remained folded upon his cane. "Marks," he said to his attendant, "bring a chair close for Miss... Brent, I believe you said?" he finished, addressing himself to Leonard.

Brent silently inclined his head and waited until Helen was seated before speaking again. Mr. Cunningham was offering apologies for being unable to rise to receive her. Helen answered with a faint smile and left the conversation to the two men.

Mr. Cunningham waved the servant aside, dismissing him, and turned back to Brent. "Your business is important?" he queried, plainly striving to suppress some inner excitement.

"Quite," Brent replied, and then, without preamble: "It is in regard to your daughter's child—your granddaughter." As he spoke Brent kept his eyes upon Mr. Cunningham with an intent gaze. He saw him start, saw his hands flutter on the cane head and heard him draw a sharp breath.

"My granddaughter!" It was barely a whisper, rather a thought that lived for an instant upon the air.

"Yes," Brent said. "Are you interested?"

The light that burned suddenly in the eyes that Mr. Cunningham lifted to search his own was sufficient answer for Brent. "You may, if you like, meet her," he said.

CHAPTER XI

Even Helen was touched by the piteous quaver with which Mr. Cunningham echoed Brent's words. It bespoke a yearning that had little in keeping with the character that had been attributed to her grandfather. The disparity confused her.

And in a flash her confusion was deepened, for Mr. Cunningham burst suddenly into a laugh that was like a slap in her face. It was mirthless, sardonic, insulting.

"I dare say, I dare say," he gasped at the end of it. Brent stood frowning and still. Helen moved to rise from her seat but he motioned to her to remain seated.

"I dare say I may if I wish to pay the price," Mr. Cunningham went on. "It would be nice for my granddaughter if I cared to see her. Nice for Nellin, too. Yes, nicer perhaps for Nellin." He shook his head and his cackled laughter ceased.

"I think it would be nicer, as you put it," Brent interjected sharply, "for you, Mr. Cunningham."

"Eh? Eh? For me? So you think I've some lingering affection for Evangeline left, do you? Why...?" He stopped abruptly and looked at Brent with rising suspicion of him as an individual. "What have you to do with her? Or with my granddaughter?" he rasped. And waited breathlessly for the answer.

He was torturing himself and he knew it. Turning his pride upon himself and feeling it as the cutting edge of a sharp knife.

He had longed for his daughter's return, prayed for it, and now that word of her was at hand his old obsession returned. He would not forgive her for having disgraced him. Her marriage to Nellin always had appeared to him in this light. To refuse her forgiveness and make Nellin suffer had become an obsession with him. And it had not entirely left him.

"I have a great deal to do with her story and with your granddaughter," Brent returned quietly "but with you, sir, I should prefer not to deal were it not forced upon me."

"Forced upon you, eh?" The remark seemed to puzzle the old man. But he was not at a loss for action. Swiftly he turned to Helen. "Who are you?" he cried excitedly.

"An imposter, I suspect," Helen jumped to her feet. "Oh, let us go!" she appealed to Brent. "Most willingly," he said instantly, "if I could forget my promise to your father."

"Then tell him, tell him quickly, and let us go," Helen pleaded, completely ignoring the man who struggled helplessly to rise from his chair.

Brent faced him. "It is an obligation to a friend that brings me here, Mr. Cunningham," he said simply. "And this young lady is neither Miss Brent as I introduced her to spare you a shock, nor an imposter. She is Evangeline Nellin."

Mr. Cunningham sank back in his chair and closed his eyes. When he opened them they set upon Helen with a devouring eagerness that frightened her.

Here before him stood a girl who bore his daughter's name—a girl who might be his own flesh and blood. And yet he did not believe. He could not believe. It was unbelievable. He didn't want to believe. Yes, he did. He could make her suffer, make Evangeline suffer. They had sent her sent the girl here to make their peace with him. Well, he would show them how little they had to hope for. Show them quickly enough, too.

"Evangeline Nellin," he sneered. The sneer changed fiercely to a snarl. "What do you think I am, a doddering old fool?" he thrust at Brent.

Brent shrugged. "I believe you would not care to listen to my opinion of you, Mr. Cunningham," he said evenly.

"Eh? Eh?" Mr. Cunningham was surprised.

"You see, I happened to have been a friend of Charles Nellin's," Brent explained. "I did not know your daughter, but I have seen her photograph. I do not care to express my opinion in her daughter's presence of a man who would ill-treat her."

"Ill-treat her?" Mr. Cunningham screeched. "Ill-treat her?"

"Well," Brent passed it off with a gesture, "let us get this interview over with as quickly as possible. I assure you it is as distasteful to us as it is to you. Miss Nellin came to you only because her father gave your daughter a death-bed promise to bring her here."

The shriveled figure stiffened, sat upright with the erectness of a mummy. A quiver ran across the thin lips and down to the thin hands. Pallor as deep as death settled upon the worn countenance. And those who watched were constrained to pity.

Dead! Evangeline was dead! They saw the remorseless truth of it eat into his soul. He bowed his head upon his hands and suffered his blow in silence, except for the painful expulsion of his breath.

"I'm sorry, sir," Brent said with a touch of gentleness. "I should have broken the news less harshly but..." He left the sentence in the air to imply that he had believed in Mr. Cunningham's show of impla-

Drink Hot Water To End Indigestion INSTANT RELIEF

Thousands of unfortunate people suffer almost daily from stomach acidity, gas, sourness and indigestion after eating. If they would start the agreeable practice of taking a glass of hot water containing a teaspoonful or four tablets of pure Bisurated Magnesia, they would soon find their stomachs so strengthened and improved that they could eat the richest and most satisfying meals without the least symptom of indigestion.

Nearly all digestive troubles are caused by an excess of acid and an insufficient blood supply in the stomach. Food ferments and sours before digestion can take place. A glass of hot water draws the blood to the stomach and Bisurated Magnesia neutralizes the stomach acids and keeps the stomach strong, sweet and healthy and promotes normal painless digestion. Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, easy and pleasant to take, and can be obtained from any well stocked drugstore in either powder or tablet form. Try this today and enjoy your meals in peace.—Adv.

cability. Cyril Cunningham lifted his head. "Tell me about it," he said weakly. "I'd suggest that you first summon your valet or companion and let him give you something to steady you, sir," Brent replied, concerned with the effect of the shock he had dealt the old man.

"I'm all right," Mr. Cunningham insisted, but quite obviously he was in great physical distress. "Just hand me that glass, please," he directed, reaching out a hand toward a nearby table.

Brent did as he requested. The glass must, he thought, contain something Mr. Cunningham had been on the verge of taking when they entered his room, for the liquid was of a pale, grayish tinge.

Mr. Cunningham swallowed it quickly, and settled back in his chair to rest a moment before speaking again. Brent and Helen waited.

Finally he turned his eyes upon Helen and in them was a softer light. But there had been no miraculous change in him. His sorrow still was colored with bitterness.

Who these two were and what they wanted of him he had yet to prove to himself.

Suddenly Helen asked a question of Brent that opened the interview anew. "Leonard," she said with a note of tenderness in her voice that was not lost upon their host, "Leonard, you said awhile ago that you have seen a picture of my mother. Where is it? Have you got it? Let me see it."

Rather pretty acting, Mr. Cunningham thought, if it were acting. Very convincing.

"Yes," Brent said, "I have it." "And you never let me see it," Helen waited in reproach.

Brent smiled wearily. "Remember," he said, "that I didn't want the past to claim you."

Mr. Cunningham broke in with an impatient tapping of his cane. "Have you come here to discuss this matter with each other or with me?" he asked acridly.

"I beg your pardon," Brent apologized quickly, "but you see, Miss Nellin did not know until yesterday who her mother and father were."

Mr. Cunningham's gaze went from one face to another, seeking an answer to this amazing statement.

"Right," Brent agreed. "When we have done that we shall have no further obligations to you or to your daughter and her husband."

"Nellin! Is he alive?" "He is not, and please listen, sir, without interruption. Mr. Cunningham nodded in assent.

Brent told him then of how he was called to Mexico to the bedside of his dying friend, Charles Nellin, and given charge of the little girl who was named for her mother, Evangeline.

"They called themselves Mr. and Mrs. Page," he explained before he went on to tell how he had brought Helen up, "because Charles feared that one of your agents might find them and succeed in separating him from Evangeline."

"So he had cause to fear that had he?" Mr. Cunningham did not express his thoughts aloud, but Brent sensed it, as he revealed when he said: "I grant you that Nellin had his faults, but he was an artist and he loved his wife enough to prefer vagabondage to losing her."

"Vagabondage." The word came as a mere whisper and Brent on without apulse.

"I have kept the secret of Helen's parentage for 15 years," he said at the end of the story. "Frankly I had no wish to bring her to you, sir, but as I've said, I was compelled to do so. And I have not hesitated to reveal your character to her as it came to me from my friend, Charles. Everything rests with you and Helen now, but I hope..." He paused and looked at Helen.

"Yes, yes," Mr. Cunningham cut in abruptly, "what is it you hope?" (To Be Continued)

Flying his Wright-motored Buhl Air Sedan, powered with Richfield Gasoline and Richlube Motor Oil, Loren Mendell, famous "Angeleno" endurance flight pilot, finished first in elapsed time, in the Oakland to Cleveland race of the National Air Derby.

Richfield was winner also in a majority of the closed course events at Cleveland, recalling its remarkable performance in the 1928 air races in Los Angeles, when it won four of the six major events... the greatest competitive record ever credited to any gasoline!

at ALTOONA

Lou Meyer...1st, Fred Frame...2nd, Myron Stevens...3rd, in the Annual Altoona Labor Day Speedway Classic. All three of these daring drivers used Richfield...a triple triumph for "the gasoline of power!"

Meyer's victory in this race clinched the 1929 Speed Crown...his second consecutive National A.A.A. Speed way Championship and an added tribute to Richfield Gasoline for Meyer used this famous motor fuel in his car exclusively throughout the 1929 racing season.

at PIKE'S PEAK

Glen Shultz, driving a stock Studebaker President Eight, powered with Richfield Gasoline, won the Penrose Trophy in the Annual Labor Day Pike's Peak Run...the most spectacular and grueling event of the year for strictly stock cars.

Shultz covered the 11.9 miles from Crystal Creek to the Summit in 21 minutes, 43 seconds...the fastest time ever made over this course. Richfield furnished the power, speed, the un-failing dependability necessary for this grueling run...another great record for "the gasoline of power!"

A Reputation

for Quality is not gained overnight. Seidel's Markets' Reputation for Quality is the result of selling only fancy meats for many years. Regardless of conditions, this policy is rigidly adhered to.

Seidel's Markets feature:

Cudahy's Puritan Steer Beef, Cudahy's Puritan Hams, Bacon, Lambs, Veal and Pork, Lard, Shortening and Sausage. Remember, too, every piece of meat sold is U. S. Government Inspected and Passed.

Bacon—Its Nutritive Value and Place in Dietetics

The body, to be in proper condition, must have food to furnish energy or fuel to keep it going. All lean meats furnish, according to authorities, moderate amounts of energy—but the fatty meats, such as bacon, are among its richest sources. In fact, many dietitians give bacon the highest figure of them all.

THE TINYMITES

STORY & ILL COCHRAN—PICTURES & KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

The Tinymites all stood in awe, now and soon I'll have a big surprise for you. My saws are wonderful. You bet. And, my, what funny things I get. I am surprised myself, sometimes, at what my saws will do.

Just then the saws began to creak. The Tinymites could hardly speak. They knew the job was almost done. Gee, what was coming out? "Now, watch real closely," cried the man. And up, real close, the Tinymites ran. In just about a moment they began to jump and shout.

"Ah, here it comes," one of them cried. "The log is slipping right outside, but it has changed its shape a lot. I surely wonder how the saws have done a trick like this. I hope that nothing goes amiss." Then from the big machine there jumped a great big wooden cow.

"The queerest thing I ever saw," said Scouty, as he heard the log go buzzing out of sight. The big machine shook quite a bit. They thought the log was breaking it, but then their friend, the carpenter, said, "It will be all right."

"The saws inside are very strong. I'm sure that nothing will go wrong. Just have a little patience and we'll see what we will see. The log you saw will soon be changed. You see, the big saws are arranged to cut out anything I want. Just leave it all to me."

"Oh, gee, what are you going to make?" cried Scouty. "How long will it take? We all are very curious. Please tell us, if you will. But, then again, I've changed my mind. 'Twill be more fun to wait and find, by seeing, what you're making. It will give us all a thrill."

"A wise young man," the queer man said. "That shows you sometimes use your head. Be patient."

Missing Letter Links

RULES

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example: to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you

FOOT TO PATH—Don't let this FOOT PATH prove a trap to your game. You should be able to shoot through it in par seven.

MAY USE SOUND IN NEW MOTIE CLUB PICTURE

"Varsity," the prize winning Santa Ana Movie club motion picture, now in the process of making, is to have a theme song and other incidental music, to be written by Emmette Osborne, author of the story and a song writer of national repute.

In a conference with club officials, late yesterday, Osborne agreed to furnish musical numbers for the club's second motion picture, "Fight Now," a college football song, will be the theme song for "Varsity," while a second number, "Anywhere," a variety waltz, has been written especially for the picture.

Osborne is well known as the composer of the song hit, "Oh Henry," and has several other well known melodies to his credit. For the last five years he has figured prominently in Los Angeles musical circles and is well known as a radio entertainer.

The music for "Varsity" will be printed and sold during the showing of the picture. The cover of the music sheet will represent a scene from "Varsity." The idea of having special music is an innovation in amateur motion picture work and the Santa Ana club will be the first in the world to have original music for its film.

Both songs are practically completed now, Osborne stated, and they will be ready for printing within two weeks. Filming on the picture will start within three weeks, it was announced today.

Osborne is superintending the adaptation of his prize story into a scenario and will probably assist in the filming of the picture. Plans are now being considered for a would be "Varsity" to have several sound sequences. If club officials decide to use this method, Osborne's songs will be heard.

MEXICAN FINED ON DISTURBANCE COUNT

Jose Angel Cruz, arrested yesterday morning on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, after he is asserted to have struck Refugio Rescario, 16-year-old boy, over the head with a butcher knife, was charged with breach of peace when he was taken before Justice Andrew Wilson this morning on a plea of guilty was fined $10.

Judge Wilson said he learned that the row was a family quarrel and that the youth was struck with Cruz' fist and not a knife, as reported.

The boy was taken to the county hospital for medical treatment and later returned to his home.

Examinations For Court Of Appeals Posts Announced

Civil service examinations for persons seeking positions in the newly created fourth district court of appeals, to which Judge Emerson J. Marks was appointed as judge, last week, today were announced by the judge, who said that he was of the opinion that a number of Santa Anans would apply for positions.

Applications for positions as deputy court clerks close on September 21, with the examinations scheduled for September 28, and applications for bailiffs must be in by September 14, with examinations scheduled for September 21. Applications should be sent to the Fourth District Court of Appeals, either in Los Angeles or Sacramento, and application blanks can be obtained from these two places immediately, Judge Marks said.

What It Means To Be President

By Calvin Coolidge

breakfasts, they were productive of a spirit of good fellowship, which was no doubt a helpful influence to the transaction of public business.

In addition to these White House events, the President and his wife go out to 12 official dinners. They begin with the Vice President, and among the 10 members of the Cabinet, and close with the Speaker of the House. Aside from these it is not customary for the President to accept the hospitality of any individuals. This results not from any desire on his part to be exclusive, but rather arises from an application of the principle of equality. The number of days in his term of office is limited. If he gave up all the time when he is not otherwise necessarily engaged, it is doubtful if he could find 50 evenings in a year when he could accept invitations.

It would make great confusion in all White House relations unless the rules of precedence were observed. If this were not done, the most ambitious and intrusive would seize the place of honor, or it would be bestowed by favor. In both cases all official position would be ignored. In its working out, therefore, the adoption of rules which take no account of persons, but simply apply to places, is the only method which is in harmony with our spirit of equality. In its application it gives us more completely a government of laws and not of men.

(Copyright 1929 by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Mr. Coolidge will tell in his article, Tuesday, of the tremendous responsibility the President labors under.

Court Notes

R. M. Sumner, as trustee for the estate of Neil Clark, bankrupt, today brought suit against Zerisha B. Clark, seeking an accounting in regard to an apartment house and dwelling in Fullerton in which Neil Clark was alleged to have a one-half interest. According to the complaint, Zerisha Clark has collected the rents and has refused to turn over to Neil Clark his share of the profits. The complaint stated that since Aug. 24, 1928, $4500 had been collected.

Seeking to quiet title to property in Huntington Beach, G. O. Berry and Ethelyn Berry and George Dulaney today brought suit against Betty Salton, O. G. Parsons, Georgia F. Parsons and the Republic Supply company.

H. W. Baldwin today brought suit against Carol L. Rapp and the Southern Meat company, seeking $516.37 in damages as a result of an automobile accident which occurred at the intersection of Commonwealth avenue and Raymond avenue, Fullerton, on April 18, 1928. The complaint said the car driven by Rapp collided with the plaintiff's truck, damaging it.

Raymond W. Ziegler, charged with non-support, pleaded guilty in superior court today and asked for probation. His hearing was set for 9:30 a. m., September 20.

Ross Cole, charged with non-support, was granted probation today for two years. He was given a suspended county jail sentence of one year.

Vennie Steiner was denied probation at his hearing in superior court today, after he had pleaded guilty to a grand theft charge. He was sentenced to one year in the county jail. He is asserted to have stolen an automobile belonging to M. E. Watson.

Charged with parking their automobiles in restricted districts, Mrs. E. A. Colonechik and W. E. Leveing, Santa Ana, were fined $2 each in police court yesterday.

R. D. Galusha, Santa Ana, was given a $2 fine in police court yesterday on an overtime parking charge.

R. R. Schroeder and Elmer Coughlan, Los Angeles men, arrested at Borchard avenue and Broadway, yesterday morning, when officers found them asleep in a car which contained four pint of Hauer, pleaded guilty on liquor charges in police court yesterday and were fined $100 each. Unable to pay the fines they were sent to the county jail.

John Pearson, 24, of 1328 Custer street, charged with assault and battery, was released on his own recognizance when he appeared before Judge Andrew Wilson in police court today. The date for his hearing was set for September 24. Pearson was arrested on a warrant issued at the instance of Jean Witte, Santa Ana girl. ## EVENING SALUTATION

"One who wants nothing, hopes for nothing and fears nothing, cannot be an artist."
—Anton Chekhov.

THE DIRECT ELECTION OF PRESIDENTS

Once more Senator Norris is agitating for the direct election of presidents instead of by the obsolete and discarded method of the electoral college. While the electoral college still functions in presidential elections, it does so only by indirection. Originally it was designed for the electors to act without instruction. Those who framed the Constitution were not quite convinced that the people were capable of choosing their president. The electoral college was one of the numerous checks upon the free action of the people. In addition to the veto of the executive, the approval of a selected body somewhat removed from the direct control of the people as the Senate then was, and the supervisory power of the Supreme Court, it was designed to effectively curb the power of the people.

How futile is every attempt to bind posterity by fixed forms was never more apparent than in the way the people have gotten around all the provisions of the Constitution. The electoral college is a good illustration. It is now little more than a rubber stamp, doing the bidding of the party which controls it. The Senate of the United States has broken away from the sphere designed for it, and instead of being an exclusive body, it has really superseded the House of Representatives in being the popular branch of the government. The Supreme Court itself has declared itself in favor of a "rule of reason" in the interpretation of the Constitution. And how independent states overcome the plain provisions of the Constitution is manifest in the way some of the Southern states have practically nullified the 15th and 16th amendments, and New York, Montana, and Wisconsin are practically nullifying the eighteenth amendment.

The purpose of Senator Norris is to square the Constitution with the facts as they exist. The electoral college has long been a fiction, and it is better to bring it into line with reality. Yet every institution has a number of hangovers which it refuses to discard, even though certain forms are more observed in the breach than in the performance. And we suspect that Senator Norris will have as difficult a task to change or abolish the electoral college as to bring about some of the other reforms for which he has been working. Nevertheless, it is good to have a man like Senator Norris in the Senate to battle for the realities.

OUR POSITION

Mr. J. F. Burke, Editor,
Santa Ana Register,
Santa Ana, Calif.

Dear Sir:

I have read your attacks on Mr. Carrillo and your attacks on the Board of Supervisors because they did not suspend him and order an investigation. Mr. Carrillo and the Board are good and honest men, and have lived here for many years.

Why are these affidavits from jailbirds, law violators, and that class? The officers have lived in Orange County many years. You have been here hardly more than one. What do you know about the situation, or what right have you to find fault with them? You are trying to disturb the peace and frame up politics to suit yourself. You should be run out of town.

We are not publishing the above letter which was unsigned because it is worth publishing or contains any argument. We are publishing it merely because the writer typifies the character of opposition in every similar contest we have ever known, and for that reason we will call attention to some obvious truths.

As far as Mr. Carrillo, the Court Interpreter, is concerned, we have made no attack upon him; we have printed the facts, affidavits and other matters relating to his activities with the Mexican people, and asked the Board of Supervisors to suspend him during the investigation so that a fair investigation could be had, to the end that there would not be intimidation. To be sure, the facts speak for themselves. As to whether this exposes an honest man to the world, the people can judge.

We did make strictures upon the Board of Supervisors because by continuing him in office without investigation for a single day or a week, they thereby assumed the responsibility for his acts after the charges were brought out. They agreed upon it in a secret meeting without giving their reasons to the public; before the Board had cognizance of the doings of this interpreter or had any reason to be warned about it whatever, any wrong he did was his own wrong. When they have such affidavits before them, and where justice for the people is delayed, it amounts for that period of time to be actually denied, and the Board is responsible. Our indignation was aroused, and we hope that we will never reach the time when our indignation will not be aroused by such action.

The suggestion is made, "Why these affidavits from jail-birds?" Where does the writer of this letter expect that affidavits of this character could be secured? Carrillo wasn't dealing with preachers and Sunday School superintendents. He was unable to extort money from them to get them out of jail or to keep them from going to jail. He was dealing with the class necessarily that get into the toils of the law, and incidentally, a group to whom our government and its officials and our people should teach the highest ideals of honesty, square dealing, and fairness. Moreover, these affidavits are not all from that group. The affidavits from the Postmistress at Delhi and those who were extorted out of money by the means of an alleged aid to a passport certainly were not criminals.

We must plead guilty to not being in the state of California for as many years as some other people, but we do not believe that it is necessary to live here twenty years or ten to know that extortion is a crime, and should be condemned wherever one confronts it, whether in California or in Maine. Years of residence do not entitle people to graft and extort or countenance it or defend it, and we are glad to know that many of those who have been commending the Register for its activities are the older as well as the younger residents in point of time of residence. Truth is eternal—honesty does not change its character at state lines. The people of one section of this country are as capable of judging crookedness as those of another. If time would cause us to look upon such affairs as this with indifference or silence after living in the state many years we should plan to move tomorrow, but we know better. The same gospel is preached in Santa Ana and Orange County as elsewhere on the globe, and stealing is stealing; and robbery is robbery; intimidation is intimidation; extortion is extortion here as everywhere.

What we know about the situation we are giving to the people. We haven't given it all, but we have given some, and in due time we will give more, as we have the facts for their perusal. A newspaper is organized to learn the facts, though the lamentable, if not tragic, thing about this whole situation is that it is being shown to us that many of these things we have brought out have been known for years and treated with indifference. Yes, we will plead guilty to disturbing the peace—of mind of some folks. When any rascality is uncovered; when the sunlight is turned in; those folks who have been joined for the purpose, possibly of plunder, are excited and disturbed, and the one who turns on the searchlight necessarily must meet hostility and criticism, but the other kind of peace is the peace that comes by purchase, by knavery, by civic paralysis, and by death. Our love for Santa Ana and Orange County daily grows. We believe that there is as fine a group of people here as anywhere in the world. We know that most of the folks have not been aware of the facts as they are, in some respects. We believe that 95 per cent of them stand for truth and honor and square dealing and the protection of the weak, and the highest ideals of government, for the foreigner as well as our own citizens; that all the public needs to know are the facts and in proper time they will do the rest.

There is one item in the letter to which we have elsewhere replied, on which we would like to say a word. The writer charges us that "we are framing politics to suit ourselves." In a sense we will have to plead guilty to this charge. We have no interest, and trust we never will in what is commonly spoken of as a political machine, but in view of the fact that nearly all of our actions either are governed by or affected by politics, that is, the science of government, we are certainly governing our own political action to suit ourselves, and we have no hesitancy in telling frankly just what that objective is.

We cannot tell it all in an editorial, but in view of the fact that the matter in this particular controversy relates to the Board of Supervisors, we are perfectly happy to state some of these politics in relation to them. We will support the Board of Supervisors, any one or all of them, just to that degree we believe they are representing the people and good government. We are in favor of the members of the Board of Supervisors who believe in majority rule upon the water question as upon everything else. We are in favor of men upon the Board of Supervisors who are so sensitive to wrong committed against the humblest citizen by any of their servants, that they will be quick to stop it and immediate to correct it. We are in favor of men on the Board of Supervisors who recognize their positions as servants of the people, and who will be against secret conclaves and sessions that hide what they are doing and why they are doing it from the people. We are in favor of men for the Board of Supervisors who will respond to the people's desires on such matters as a county planning ordinance, and certainly that will at least adopt it after it has been made mandatory by the lawmaking body of this state, which is true today.

If standing for these things is an attack upon the Board of Supervisors, it must be only because of our standing for them. We can't help that. We are for these principles, nevertheless, and if in the course of developments the course of the Board of Supervisors or any one of them, is out of harmony with these principles, we are going to stand for the principles nevertheless, and in doing this we believe we are representing the spirit of democracy in Orange County.

Life Is Not Measured By Its Length Alone

San Francisco Chronicle

Judge Henry Nell of East Aurora, New York, says that Cecil Rhodes and William Jennings Bryan ate themselves to death, while the oldest living man is an Indian of 120 summers who since babyhood has lived outdoors and eaten uncooked food. From these premises the Judge deduces that the way to live to be 100 years old is to avoid the comforts and conveniences of civilization and to be extremely moderate in diet. And being now 67 years old, he intends to devote the next 33 years to forming a national chain of luncheon clubs of persons, who, like himself, wish to round out a century. There may be something to the idea of moderation in diet. But we would hesitate to put it into effect by joining a luncheon club. The menus might be all that menus should be, yet there would remain the deadly peril of being bored to death by daily company inspired by nothing more thrilling than the grim determination to hit the five-score mark. And if perchance, some member were to indulge surreptitiously in a dish of broiled beefsteak and mushrooms and so slipped away at the youthful age of 97 or 98, would not the survivors be tormented by doubts as to whether they were on the right track to longevity?

One Swallow Ends A Summer!

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL

When my forehead began, day by day, to recede
I was filled with alarm and despair
For Nature, I thought in dismay, had decreed
That I soon should lose all of my hair.
Though my face isn't like Rudy Vales's at all
And denies me all cause to be vain
I knew, if the rest of my tresses should fall
It of course would be even more plain.

The barbers to whom I confided my fears
Trotted numerous remedies out
And declared if I'd use them a couple of years
My hair simply couldn't fall out.
I applied every one with meticulous care
Yet, although the recession was slow,
Every year I discovered a little less hair
In the place where the hair ought to grow.

Undespairing, I spoke to my medical friends,
Who, though most of them bald as the Alps,
Informed me that living more carefully tends
To bring hair to refractory scalps.
So I gave up bad habits, went early to bed
And refused to be jocular and gay
But the bright shining tract on the top of my head
Continued to spread day by day.

Today I am told that when hair starts to go
There is nothing at all to be done
It will fall, though its progress be rapid or slow,
Till the course of the baldness has run.
But each day the few last fading locks that remain
With massage sure cures I attack
And though I have thus far applied them in vain
I still think that hair will come back.

DISCOVERY

Homer heard old songs turn up again, so there must have been musical comedy in ancient Greece.

COWED

Etna and Vesuvius have subsided. Evidently Mr. Mussolini thought their eruptions might be bad for the tourist trade.

TAKING CHANCE

The reaction of American parents to Mr. Edison's choice of a Brightest Boy, will be about the same as the reaction of the vast majority of mothers at the prize award at a baby show.

Are We Economic Illiterates?

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

"We are a nation of economic illiterates." So says one of our bank presidents. Well, what of it? Are we not a nation of scientific illiterates as well? Do we know any more about the principles of physics than we know about the principles of banking? Does the man in the street know any more about hydraulic pumps than marginal utility?

Probably not. But technological problems do not confound us. We turn them over to experts. We do not take a vote to determine the purity of our water supply, or how to construct a tunnel under the Hudson River.

Economic problems, on the other hand, we try to settle by popular vote. Everybody is supposed to know how to draw up tariff schedules and regulate railroad rates. Everybody, by a kind of intuition, is expected to tell a good monetary system from a bad one. Everybody is supposed to know how to solve "the farm problem"; and a few, at least, are supposed to know what the problem is. Such matters we do not refer to experts. We settle them by taking votes.

That is why economic illiteracy is more serious than scientific illiteracy. For practical purposes, it does not matter what the voters know about the law of falling bodies. It matters a good deal what they know about the law of falling prices.

HATS

A hat is the last thing you put on when you leave a house and the first thing you take off when you go into one, on account of it being considered one of the worst things you can do to have your hat on in somebody's house, although your hat is generally clean while your shoes are often muddy and nobody expects you to take your shoes off before you go in their house and would properly talk about you if you did.

Ladies are the only ones allowed to keep their hat on in the house. This is properly because it takes them so long to put it on it would seem like a shame not to leave them keep it on if they want to.

It takes ladies longer to buy a hat than what it takes men, because a lady always expects a hat to make her look pretty, sometimes being hard, while a man generally only expects it to make him look as if he had a hat on, being a clutch.

The easiest thing for a girl to do with her hat is to describe it to another girl, while the easiest thing for a fellow to do with his is to forget where he put it.

No matter how funny looking your hat is, you would probably be still funnier looking if you had a bald head. This proves there is no use trying to improve on nature.

Cowboys have the widest hats and babies have the narrowest.

In the Long Ago

From the Register Files
14 Years Ago Today

Sept. 13, 1915

An automobile containing six persons, including a five months' old baby, turned turtle in a ditch near Tustin. Injuries were slight although all the occupants were pinned under the car.

Announcement was made that Sept. 25 would be the last day for registering and transferring for the constitutional amendments election held Oct. 26.

Trend of the industry was talked over at the field meet of the Southern California Lemon Men's club at Tustin.

With the approach of the forest fire season in the west, the fire protection exhibit of the United States Forest service at the Panama-Pacific exposition was arousing interest.

Directors, officers, sales managers, salesmen and members of the office force of the Santa Ana Wholesale Grocery company held their quarterly banquet and general conference in Taylor's Gold room.

Members of Santa Ana lodge No. 794, E. F. O. E., enjoyed a sermon delivered by their chaplain, the Rev. David Todd Gilmore, rector of St. Michael's Episcopal church, Anaheim.

Mrs. F. F. Schrock was among Santa Ana visitors in Los Angeles.

THE NEUROTIC CHILD AGAIN

Yesterday I presented 34 questions published by the Public Educational Association of the City of New York in a psycho-neurotic questionnaire for children. I present the remainder of the questions today. As I said yesterday, if your child is finding difficulty in adjusting himself to his school, it may be worth while to give yes and no answers to these questions, and with them to consult an expert in psychology:

25. Do you ever get so angry that you see red?

26. Do you stumble and fall over things more than other people?

27. Are you ever particular about your food?

28. Is there any one kind of food that makes you very sick?

29. Is there any kind of food that disgusts you so that you cannot eat it?

30. Are you usually happy?

31. Do you ever feel that nobody loves you?

32. Do you ever wish you had never been born?

33. Do you wish you were dead?

34. Do you ever get so sulky that you will not answer people?

35. Are your feelings often hurt so badly that you cry?

36. Do you ever giggle over nothing at all?

37. Is it easy to get you cross?

CHILD AGAIN

48. Did you ever have a real fight?

49. Do you like to tease a person till they cry?

50. Can you stand pain as quietly as others do?

51. Can you stand the sight of blood?

52. Do you ever feel a certain pleasure in hurting a person or an animal?

53. Did you ever have a nickname that you didn't like very well?

54. Do you feel that you are a little bit different from other people?

55. Do you sometimes feel that nobody quite understands you?

56. Do you worry much over family matters?

57. Do you seem to have a harder time to get along in school than other children do?

58. Do you ever think stories to yourself so that you forget where you are?

59. Do you ever make believe that things you wish for are true?

60. Do you ever feel that your parents are not really your own?

Don't draw hasty conclusions from your child's answer to these questions. The answers do not more than give a good basis for consultation with an expert psychologist.

OUR CHILDREN

PROMISEMOTHER

"You must never, never do that again. Promise mother. Now remember you have promised me not to do that again, ever. You promised."

That does not do a bit of good. If growing up were a matter so easy that all that was needed to preserve a child against temptation were promises, how easily life would be for us all. And it is not easy.

When a child does something that is wrong he is driven by a strong desire. Often he has no knowledge of the force that is driving him. All he knows about it is that he wants to do this delightful thing, have this exciting experience. It will take more than a promise to head him the other way. It will require experience in turning away and no child turns away from temptation without a very strong pull indeed.

What is to give that pull in the day of trial? The idea with the strongest background will win out. That is but another way of saying that the experiences of the child will weigh against the point in question one way or the other, according to the amount and the recollection of them in terms of pain and pleasure.

If the thing he longs to do has always brought him pleasure, or if it promised him a new pleasure, if the pleasure memory and the pleasure idea is the strongest, he will follow it. Then it behooves us to make right ideas pleasurable to the children and that is a very difficult matter indeed for when did the child of man long for righteousness in the face of pleasure? Not often. And no mere promise will hold him.

But a deep wish, a deep desire of his own will hold him. That personal wish, that strong desire is born of experience. This idea may promise pleasure now, but its price is a bitter one as experience has taught him and to save himself pain he follows the better way.

When you see that a child is heading the wrong way, try to set the stage for the better one by association, experience and habit. Try with all your might

Time To Smile

DOES SEEM FOOLISH

The teacher was reading the story of the man who swam across the Tiber three times when a small boy sniggered.
"Don't you believe he did it, Jimmy?" the teacher asked.
"Yes, I believe it," Jimmy answered, "but I wonder why he didn't make it four times and get back to the side where he left his clothes."
